
Pilot Killed In Air Crash

A single-engine plane crashed near the Santa Margarita River about four miles north of Fallbrook today, killing the pilot.

Sheriff's officers said they could not identify the pilot immediately, and did not know where the plane was from.

Witnesses told the sheriff's office that they saw the plane strike a hill known as Rock Mountain and then fall toward the river on the Sawday Ranch in the De Luz area.