

TINY POSTOFFICE GETS NEW BOSS

FALLBROOK, May 3 (Special)—De Luz, which claimed the distinction of having the smallest complete postoffice in the country, has a new postmaster, Mrs. Chloe J. Baxter.

The postoffice is a small building 8 feet square, beside the road leading through the settlement. Mail comes by automobile about four miles across the Santa Margarita river and over the hills from Fallbrook—unless rains make the river impassable.