

Carl A. Prahl Of Encinitas Succumbs

Carl A. Prahl, 58, of 133 Second St., Encinitas, died yesterday in a hospital of cancer. He owned and operated the San Dieguito Drilling Co.

Prahl, born at Los Angeles, lived in the county 54 years. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prahl, who settled on a DeLuz ranch in 1915.

A graduate of Oceanside High School, Prahl had lived in Encinitas since 1927. He was in the construction business before engaging in well drilling.

Surviving are his widow, Peggy; a son, Robert, of San Diego; a daughter, Mrs. Pamela Burch of Oceanside, and two grandchildren.

Services will be at 10 a.m. tomorrow in Encinitas Mortuary. Cremation is planned.
