Zenas Freeman has a gang of men at work on the new road to De Luz. The opening of this road will be of great advantage to the De Luz people, and will increase the business of the Fallbrook stores.

Since last Monday's rain of 1½ inches, there have been hundreds of acres of grain land plowed in the Fallbrook country.

Vincent Riboni of De Luz has leased his eight acre vineyard to a Santa Ana wine maker for a term of five years.

H. K. Day has over a carload of raisins. He has disposed of the entire crop to a San Diego commission man.
