A petition was received from H. M. Dámets and eighty others for a public highway across Santa Margarita ranch. Filed. D. Fairbanks, a large property-owner of San Luis Rey and De Luz, spoke in favor of the road, stating that it would be of great benefit to the thirty-one families residing in and about De Luz, and fifteen miles of travel would be saved in reaching San Diego. Richard O'Neill offers right-of-way through Santa Margarita ranch from the north line to De Luz station, but refuses to give a straight road for the reason that it would offer a ready means of escape for thieves making away with cattle and horses from the large herds on the ranch.
