

CENTRAL DALMATIAN ISLANDS FLOTILLA – CROATIA

This itinerary, which we started in 2009, has constantly remained the most popular choice for first-time sailors in Croatia.

Although we change the routes a bit every year with new anchorages or different small ports, it still is an ideal flotilla to discover the islands of Dalmatia.

It is a great way to enjoy fun sailing fellowship and experience different cultures and ancient history. Like with all of our other flotillas, this one is a foodie's and wine lover's dream as well.

We recommend that you arrive on Thursday, before the start of the flotilla, and that, on Friday, you visit the Roman Emperor Diocletian's Palace that became the heart of Old Split.

Your Sailing Hosts

Capt. Jean and "Admiral" Mila have been organizing ASA flotilla sailing trips since 2009 and have introduced many sailors and non-sailors to fascinating destinations in the Mediterranean and the Seychelles.

Jean, a native of Belgium, is a U. S. Coast Guard licensed Captain and Master 100T as well as an ASA instructor and teaches ASA 101, 103, 104, 105, 114 and 118 in Florida and the Mediterranean.

Mila, raised and born in Peru, is for all intents and purposes the Admiral of the flotilla, master organizer and first mate.

They put a very heavy emphasis on safety while ensuring that all participants go home with fun and unforgettable memories.

SATURDAY

Visit of Trogir, a UNESCO World Heritage Site in the morning, followed by provisioning.

Check-in on our yachts at Marina Baotic in the afternoon

Departure from Marina Baotic in Trogir to the island of Šolta around 17:00

We plan on anchoring or mooring in Uvala Šešula on the northside of the island. Dinner on board or at one of the restaurants on shore.

SUNDAY

Sailing to Vis, the "Greek" island in Mama Mia II. Arriving at Vis Island, stop in the Rogačić anchorage for a swim and exploring of the abandoned military cold war installations.

Docking in Vis Harbor and a traditional Dalmatian dinner at Konoba Kod Magića, a vineyard in the mountains of the island.

MONDAY

Sail to Komiža on the other side of Vis Island. Komiža is a picturesque typical Dalmatian fishing village and a favorite charter destination.

Stops for swimming and snorkeling along the way. We take a mooring ball and go ashore for dinner. This is our pizza, beer and gelato night.

TUESDAY

We will sail along the south coast of Vis to the island of Hvar. Stop along the way at one of the small bays, like Uvala Stiniva or Uvala Travna, for some swimming and snorkeling.

We will dock at Marina Palmižana on St. Klement Island, opposite of Hvar and take the water taxi to Hvar to visit the city and have dinner ashore in one of the many restaurants.

Wednesday:

On the other side of Hvar Island is the scenic port of Vrboska. It is an adorable little port with excellent restaurants and great Gelato.

Some stops along the way for swimming snorkeling and having lunch.

We will dock at either the ACI marina or the municipal marina. Dinner ashore. Enjoy this small city that seems like frozen in time.

Thursday:

We cross the Hvarski Kanal to the island of Brac and will sail by the beach of Zlatni Rat, the most photographed beach of Croatia.

After a lunch on board and some swimming near Zlatni Rat, we sail to the small fishing port of Milna where we will spend the night.

Friday:

We return to the base, with some more swimming and good sailing along the way and arrive around 16:00 at the Baotic Marina where we will refuel before returning to our slips.

You can stay on board on Friday night but, if you do, you will have to disembark by 8:30 on Saturday morning.

Marina Baotic is a modern marina with excellent facilities, a pool and bar and restaurants.

NEW!

Obtain your ASA 103-104 certifications during this flotilla. One dedicated yacht with an instructor will follow our fleet and students will enjoy the flotilla experience while training for the Basic Coastal Navigation and Bareboat Cruising certifications.
