

The most effective teams use the talents of each personality type to get things done.

Great leaders are in tune with the personalities of their team members and know how to assign the work within a team to get the best results.

This handy chart shows you the strengths each True Colors type brings to any project.

Would you like your team members to understand each other better and clearly communicate with respect?

True Colors provides the insight and tools to help you create impactful teams.

COLOR TEAMS WORK CYCLE

