

Valued Customers

As of today, our flour is no longer
Yoshon for the rest of this season.

Yoshon flour is ordered in August and the quantity needs to last until Pesach. Chasdei Hashem, we have been busier than we expected and we finished our Yoshon allotment.

Due to the flour market conditions, no distributor is willing to sell us any Yoshon flour.

I am sorry for any inconvenience that this might cause you.

B'ezrat Hashem, we will once again be Yoshon next season.
