Our current Robert B. Harris Scholars: Domenica Pusic, Jaylen Davis, and Megan Castillo

Since launching the scholarship program in 2018, we're thrilled to have been able to help three dynamic, talented young leaders further their promising academic careers. From dance therapy to innovative community initiatives to grassroots activism, each of our current Robert B. Harris Scholars is making an incredible impact on the world around them. We're excited about all the progress we're continuing to make – and with your help, that progress will be even greater. Thank you so much for your time and consideration, and we look forward to hearing from you soon!
