DOWNTOWN METRO CITY...

You can't have a party without a boombox!

SH!

MEANWHILE,
AT THE C.S.D.

I never expected so much paperwork when I signed up to be a superhero.

We work for the government, Infinite. Besides, reports are important for the C.S.D. The more information we have, the easier we can prevent future incidents.

Eh, too bad we're missing the Bithead concert.

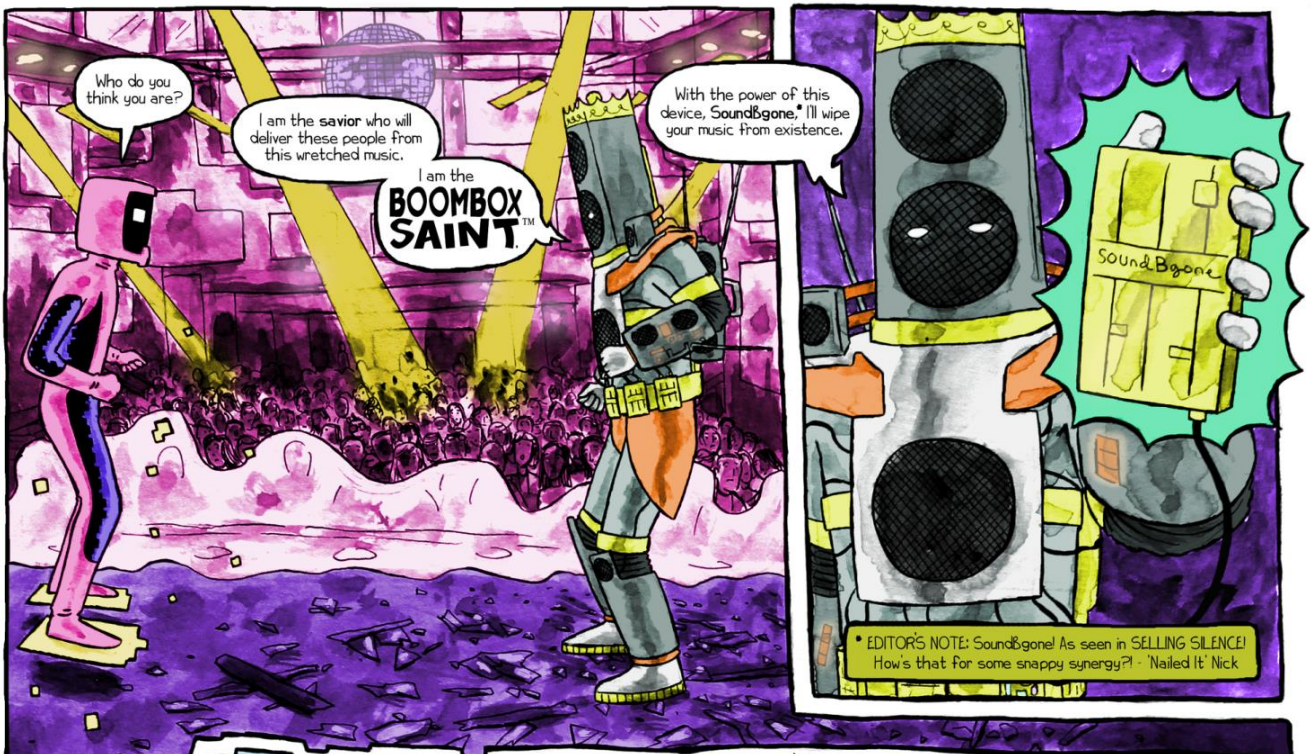

Bithead is the biggest DJ from Sweden!

What is a 'bit head'?

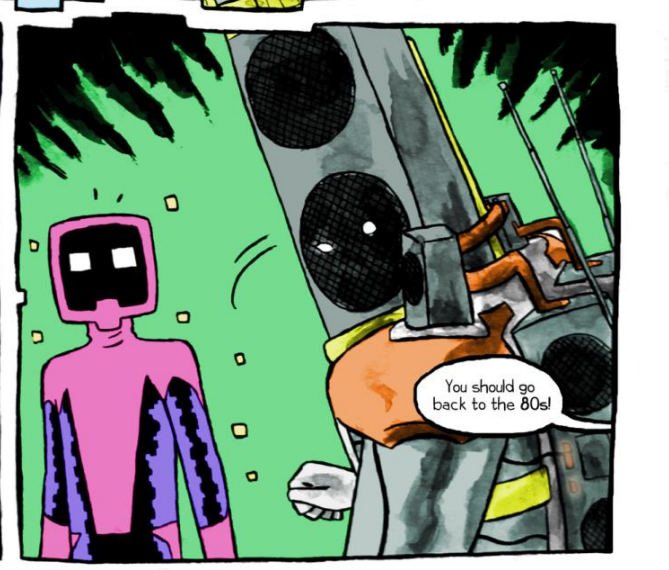

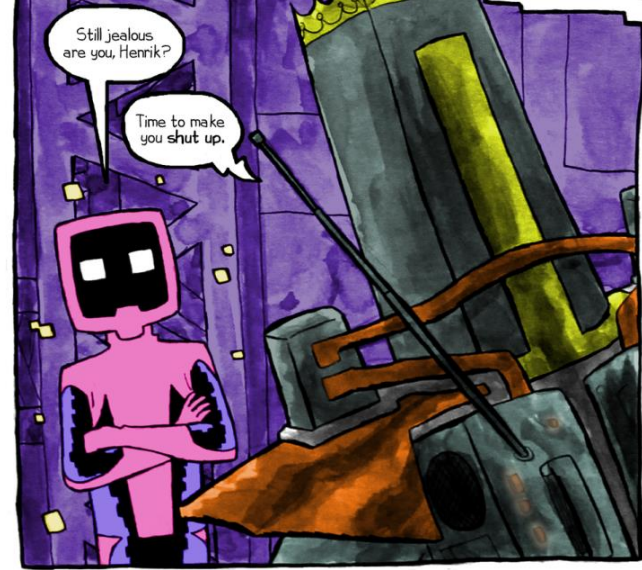

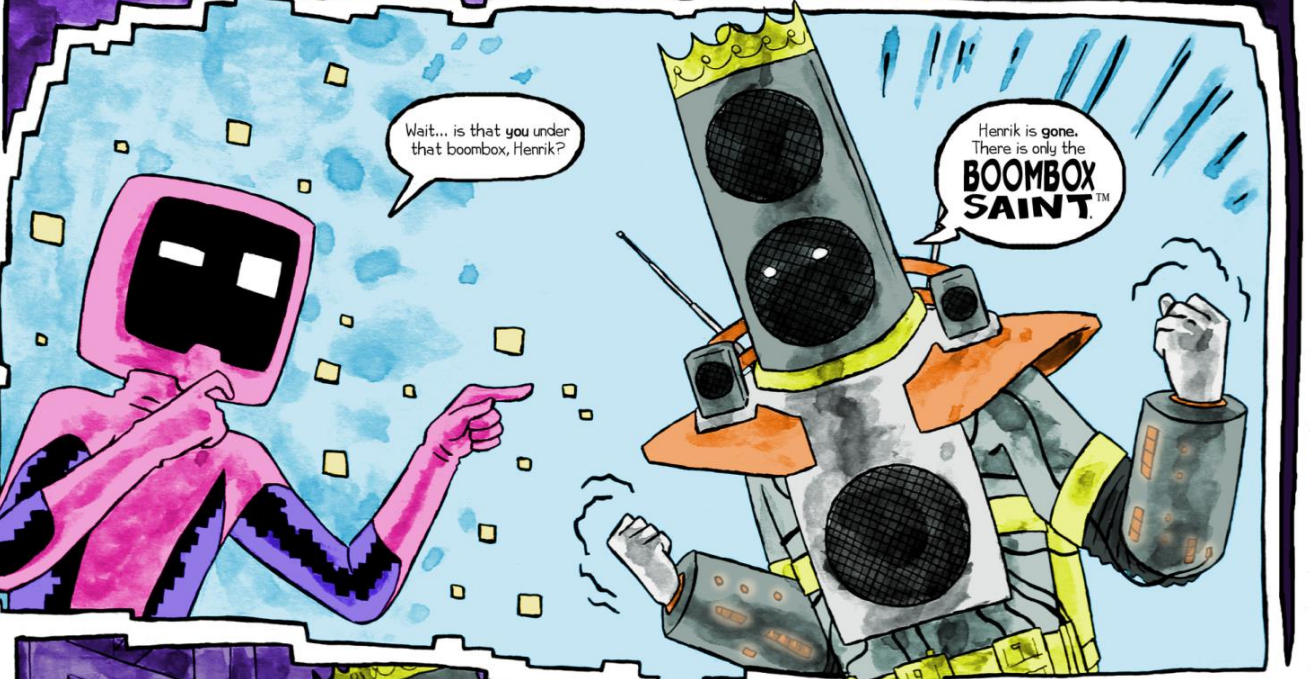

You kids like that electro garbage? Anyways, his show is getting crashed right now by some nut with a boombox on his head.

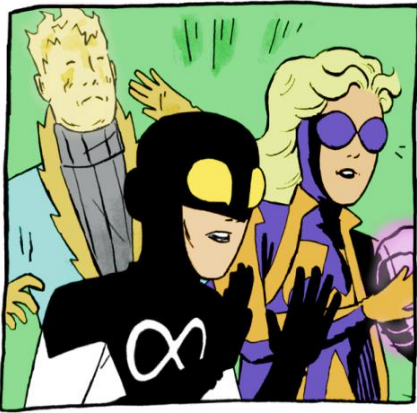

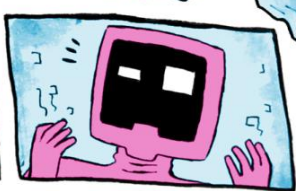

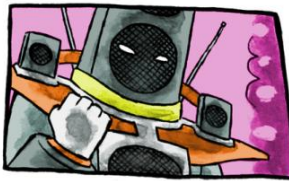

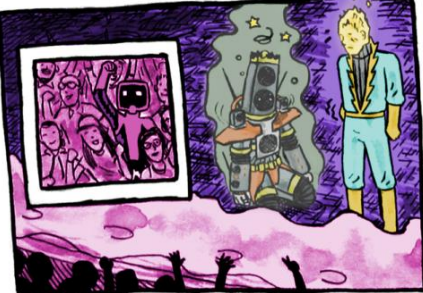

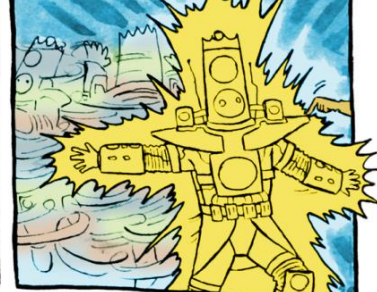

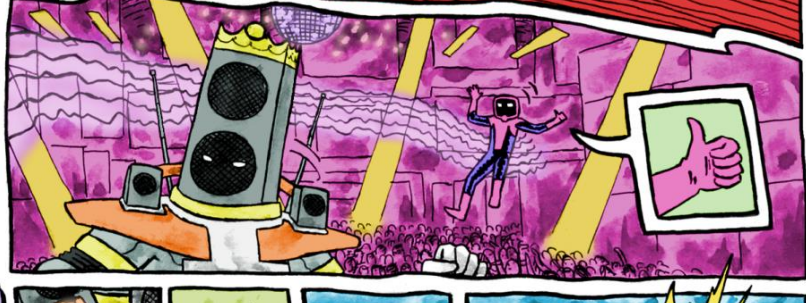

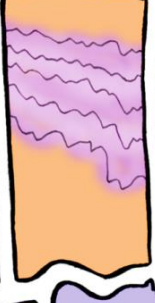

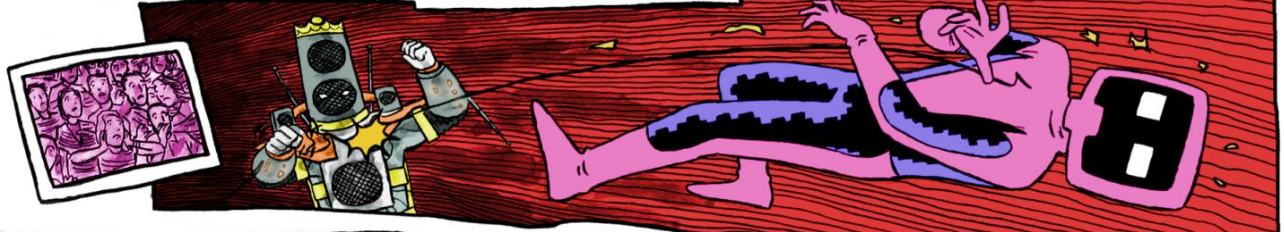

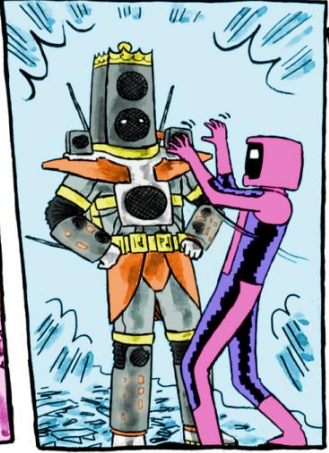

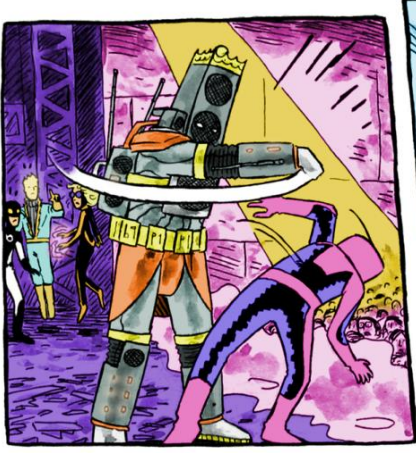

Is that our cue to get outta here?

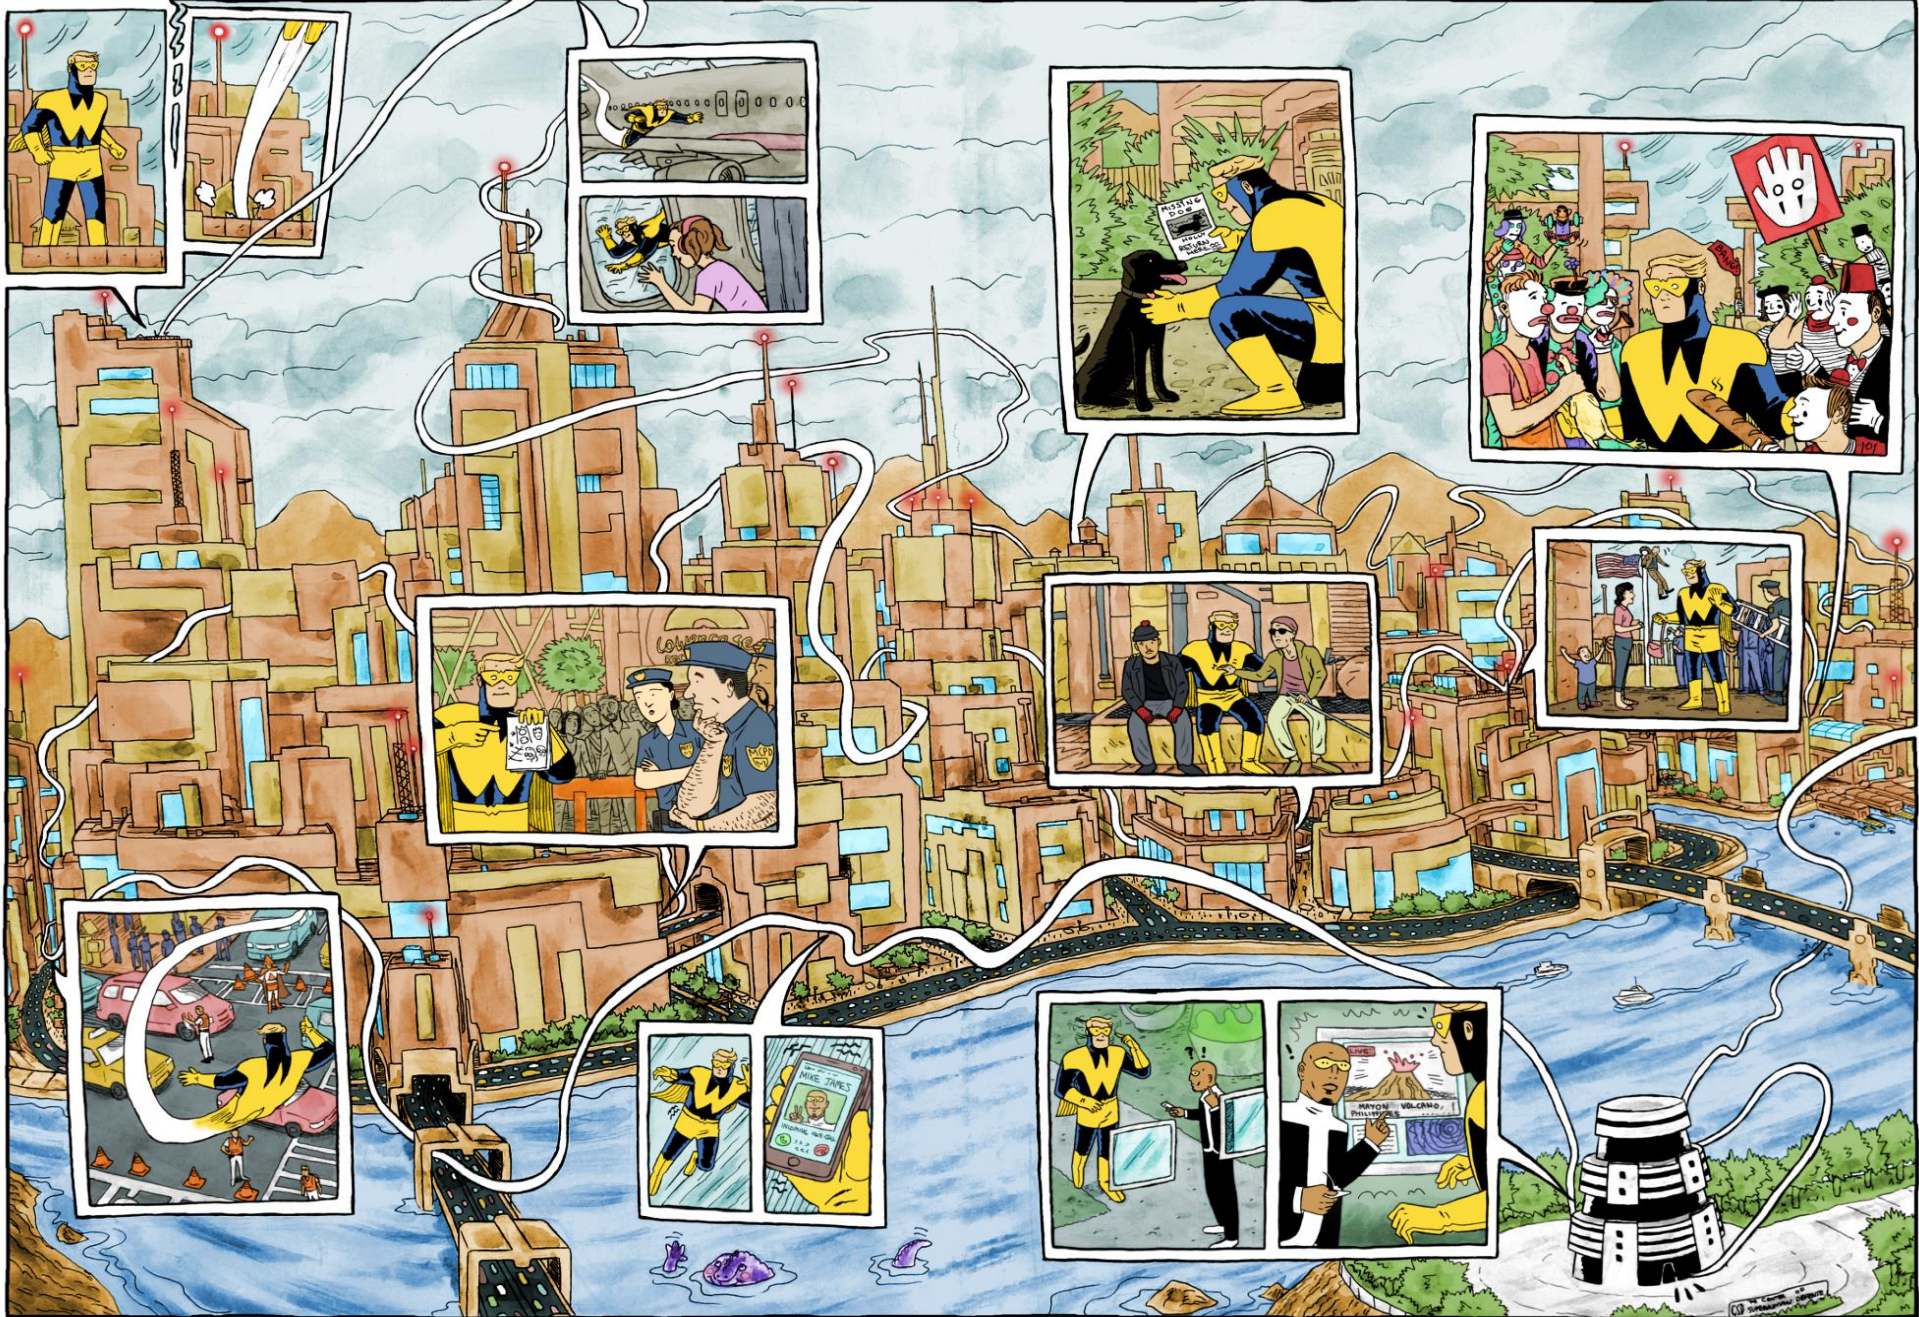

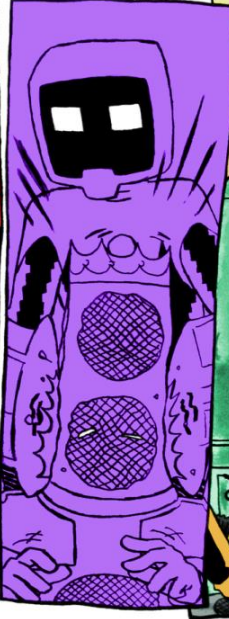

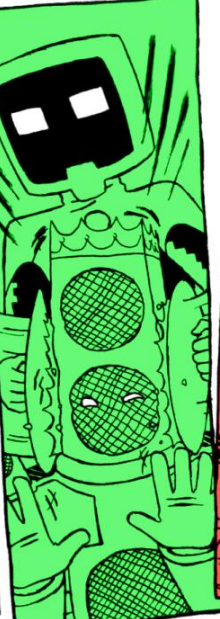

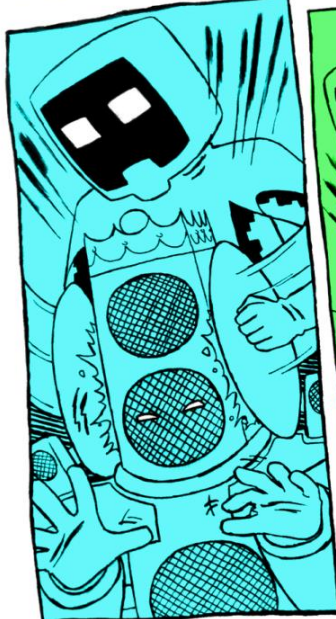

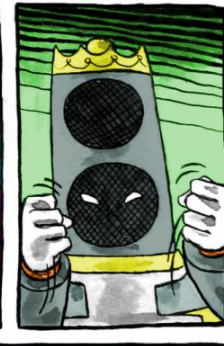

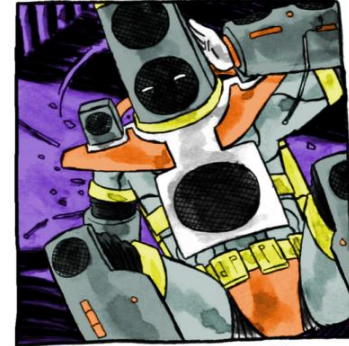

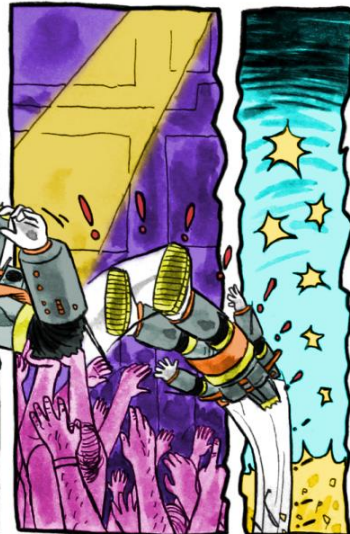

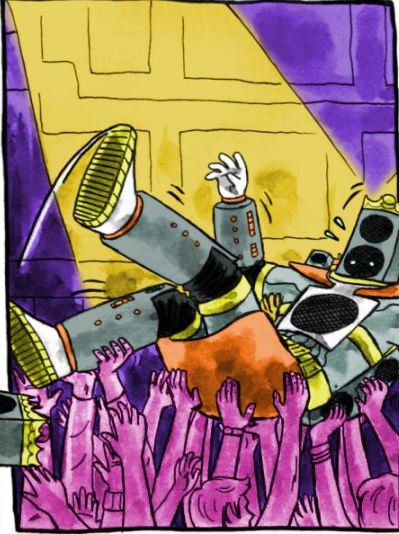

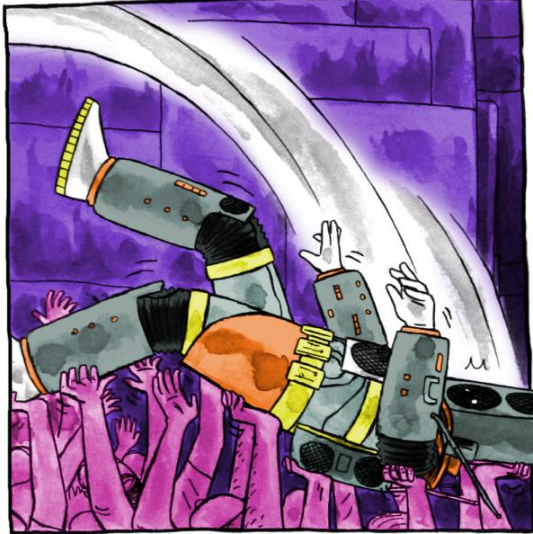

* EDITOR'S NOTE: SoundBgone! As seen in SELLING SILENCE! How's that for some snappy synergy?! - Nailed It! Nick

THE ATOMIC: Little Moments by Daniel Williamson

Here are a few snippets from the sketchbook to get a taste of how this special came together! We were working with the Black Box Films folks on the latest project, Selling Silence, and we thought it'd be fun to do a comic story working in the framework of the film. Introduce some pieces, take away sound, play in the sandbox for a bit, then tidy it back up before leaving! Anyway, we already had the bombastic Swedish DJ Bithead coming sooner or later— all we needed was a nutty villain to pair him up with. I just thought to myself "Boombos Saint is a GOOD NAME." and here we are once again, dear reader.

LAYOUTS

More process peeks, these are the original layouts for each of the pages to the Infinite Wonders story. There was an extra page added into the story, 'cause why not? Also, dig that nice big INK SLOTTCH. There's a lesson about being extra careful with your ink in there, but we're not qualified to tell you it!

BREAKING NEWS

Sound disappears worldwide, cause is unknown

By Laura Levitt

DEVELOPING:

At approximately 10:23am, an inexplicable loss of sound was experienced and reported across the globe. Such an event is unprecedented and troubling, law enforcement notes.

Authorities are advising everyone to stay calm as they work to identify the cause and find a solution. Stay indoors and avoid dangerous situations that may arise from the loss of sound.

We will continue to update as the story develops.

NOLAN BROOKS
CRIMINAL MASTERMIND

Here are a few last things before we go. Several really fun wanted posters that were used in the short with a couple of characters from the comics on them. Nolan Brooks is DEFINITELY a criminal mastermind. No doubt about it there, guys. Then there's that article with several other pertinent easter eggs. We had a great time doing all of this, and we hope you had fun as well! The last thing we have for you down there is a first look at what to expect for INFINITE WONDERS #4. Fancy new suits?! Wha? Thanks for reading, dear reader! We love ya.
