

From Practical Buddhism to Truth Level Buddhism

Saturday, October 20, 2018 • 1:00 - 3:30 p.m.
with Reverend Marvin Harada

We seek to find what Buddhism can do for us in our life — will it help to ease our stress or make us happier? We all start with these questions, which reflect the practical level of Buddhism. This seminar will address these questions and then introduce the truth level of Buddhism.

Reverend Marvin Harada is the head minister at the Orange County Buddhist Church, co-director of the Center for Buddhist Education in Berkeley, and author of “Discovering Buddhism in Everyday Life,” a compilation of essays written over his first 25 years as a Shin Buddhist minister. He holds degrees from the University of Oregon, the Institute of Buddhist Studies in Berkeley, and Ryukoku University in Kyoto, Japan. An engaging and popular speaker, he excels at making the Buddhist teachings relevant to our everyday life.
