

∞ PLANNING YOUR FUNERAL SERVICE ∞

Christian burial—your burial—is marked by three characteristics.

- It is an act of worship wherein we glorify God for the gift of eternal life in Jesus Christ.
- It is a liturgy of celebration whereby we give thanks for the gift of your life among us and commend you to the care of our loving God.
- It is a time when members of the Body of Christ gather to comfort one another and to offer mutual assurance of God’s abiding love.

The earliest records of Christian burial tell us that the following elements were included:

- Prayer in the home with family before the burial
- A gathering of the community for a burial service, consisting of thanksgivings, psalms, hymns, readings from Scripture, and prayers for the departed and those who mourn
- Celebration of the Holy Eucharist
- A procession of lights and torches to the place of burial
- The interment of the remains

When completing this packet, it is suggested that you take your time. Consult with your family and clergy. Planning your own Burial Service, is a profound, spiritual exercise for most people. You will need to read about the service in The Book of Common Prayer (BCP, 468–507). The rubrics (fine italic print) on these pages are of particular interest. You will also need a Hymnal, 1982. And a Bible.

The information you will provide in the packet will give invaluable guidance to your family and clergy when they are planning the events around your death and burial service. You do not have to make every decision or fill in every blank. Many details will have to be decided at the time according to circumstances. Funerals, as the saying goes, may be for the living. But they should reflect your values and wishes. Any information will be helpful, and will be honored as best we can.

GENERAL BURIAL INSTRUCTIONS

First of all, know that cremation is a perfectly acceptable choice for members of the Episcopal Church. Creation can be done before or after the Burial (Funeral) Service. The church's process surrounding your death and burial will be largely the same whether you choose direct cremation, an expeditious service and direct burial, or a more traditional embalming and viewing.

The Episcopal tradition is that church members are buried from the church. Members of St. Thomas are also welcome use the church as the venue for a visitation, rather than renting a funeral home. Even with a body, careful use and planning can significantly reduce cost for our families. At this writing, members of St. Thomas may have ashes interred in the Memorial Garden, or in the historic churchyard.

The Prayer Book indicates the body is to be present, whether whole or cremains, for the Burial Service. At this service, the coffin or urn is closed and is always covered by a pall, which the church will provide. Under special circumstances, a memorial service without the body may be held.

MY BURIAL INSTRUCTIONS

I request my remains to be

- Cremated       directly after death       after the funeral
- Not cremated, not embalmed, not prepared for viewing, but for direct burial following an expeditious funeral service.
- Not cremated, but embalmed and prepared for a viewing and funeral service.
