Contract to Perform in an RMES Production

The Director(s) will set the actual production schedule within the parameters listed in the production's announcement. You might not be called for every rehearsal, but you should be available. A read-through or cast meeting may be scheduled prior to the start of rehearsals (If necessary). Every RMES cast member is expected to assist the production team in making the show the best that it can be. RMES will do our best to place you on a crew that fits your talents first, but everyone needs to be flexible as the various production needs arise. Additionally, every cast member may be asked to contribute up to $30.00 towards their costume (All local resources will be explored first prior to seeking any cast contributions). Finally, we want to remind everyone to stay healthy, to keep a positive attitude in rehearsals, and to communicate any questions or concerns you might have to the director(s). Please complete the information on page 2, and then sign that you agree to the expectations as presented.
