

AUDREY HURST CROWE

Audrey Hurst Crowe, 79, of Callahan, passed away April 3, 2024, after a long 15-year battle with Parkinson's disease, followed by a brave effort to recover from her recent stroke in January 2024. She was born April 22, 1944, in Thomasville, Georgia. Audrey married Curtis Crowe on May 7, 1971. They were happily married for almost 53 years. Audrey was a homemaker, devoted wife, and loving mother, who was, the heart of her family. She was a strong woman, who kept her home together, while Curt was away on many Navy deployments. They enjoyed traveling and camping throughout the United States. Audrey enjoyed gardening, driving her little red golf cart, and witty banter with family and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents Carroll Aubrey Hurst and Florrie Ester Crawford Hurst Sheffield; and brother Billy Steve Hurst.

Audrey is survived by her loving husband, Curt Crowe; children Angela Stores of Jacksonville, Anita Bozeman of Elkton, FL, Curt (Nicole) Herndon of Keystone Heights and Cheri (Paul) Potrok of Callahan; 12 grandchildren; and many great-grandchildren.

The family will receive friends Thursday, April 11 from 6 – 8 p.m. at Nassau Funeral Home. A graveside service for Audrey will be held Friday, April 12 at 10 a.m. at Jacksonville National Cemetery. Guests should arrive by 9:45 a.m. and proceed to Lane 3 for procession.

Arrangements under the direction of Nassau Funeral Home, Callahan, 904-879-1770.
