

ERIK FLOY ANDERSON

Erik Floy Anderson, 25, of Callahan, formally of Wake Forrest, North Carolina, tragically passed away March 13, 2024. He was born August 21, 1998, in St. Joseph, Missouri.

Erik had an infectious smile and a charismatic personality that drew everyone he met to love him. He loved Jesus and would tell you about Him at any given time. Erik was an outstanding father to his son, Xander, a loving fiancé, an amazing son, friend and mentor to many. He was someone you could always count on to make you laugh. Erik had many interests such as music, football, soccer, basketball and going to the springs. He enjoyed any and all things adventurous. Erik was employed through Altec of Jacksonville where he was a service technician. He loved his job and excelled at it, and recently received the Top Wrench award. Erik is loved immensely and will be forever missed. “Love yours” He is preceded in death by his father Brian Anderson; and brother Christopher Anderson.

Erik leaves behind his mother Andrea Pridgen; father Patrick Pridgen; loving fiancé Lexxie Jones; son Xander Anderson; brother Daniel (Tori) Anderson; grandparents Mike and Liana Anderson, Gail Hankins, Floyd and Sue Pridgen; nephews Luke Anderson and Bennett Anderson; niece Ashlyn Anderson; bonus family Tony Taylor, Tasha Taylor, Braydon Taylor, Bryson Taylor; and many extended family members and countless friends.

The family will receive friends at noon Saturday, March 23, prior to the celebration of life service at 1 p.m. at Nassau Funeral Home with Pastor Gabe Sylvia officiating. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made for Erik’s son, Xander at <https://www.spotfund.com/story/1469c0d6-b059-4d99-90da-82c1708b70b6>.
