

JAMES L. HOLSOMBACH

James Lafayette Holsombach, 55, of Hilliard, passed away unexpectedly February 1, 2024. He was born June 19, 1968 in New Port Richey, Florida. Although he had no children of his own, he was always the much-loved favorite uncle to a huge pack of nieces and nephews.

For whom he was always inventing new and more dangerous ways of getting injured.

He was always down for adventure, playing pranks and laughing. He was a talented and proud builder, a fisherman and farmhand. But his true gift was jovially arguing with anyone willing to return fire. He was as tough as he was kind. He was the first to respond to anyone in need of help. A mentor and teacher to many tradesmen, who will carry on his knowledge and wisdom. He loved all animals, except a freaking string ray. He was a Dapper Dan man!

He is survived by his wife of 37 loooong years, Helen Holsombach; his parents Alice and Leon Anderson; sister Angie (David) Taylor; brothers Wyatt (Jessie) Anderson, Dennis (Cathy) Anderson and Kenny (Christie) Anderson.

The family will receive friends Friday, February 9 from 4-6 p.m. at Nassau Funeral Home, Callahan. The celebration of life service will be held Saturday, February 10 at the River House from 12 – 4 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests potted plants or trees that may be planted in his honor.

Arrangements under the direction of Nassau Funeral Home, Callahan, 904-879-1770.
