

RAYMOND MARVIN WRIGHT

Raymond Marvin Wright, 52, passed away December 26, 2023 in Hazlehurst, Georgia. Ray was born November 7, 1971 in Jacksonville, to William Peter (Pete) Wright and the late Wanda Brandies Taylor. Over the course of his life, Ray became a skilled dairy farmer and cattleman. He was also well versed in mechanics, construction and as a lineman. Most who knew him well would describe Ray was a man with a tough and determined exterior but a kind and compassionate spirit. Ray made a profession of faith and was baptized as a child at the First Baptist Church of Callahan. Though he endured many hardships in this life, Ray maintained his love and faith in Jesus Christ. He was preceded in death by his wife Elizabeth Wright; and mother Wanda Brandies Taylor.

He is survived by his sons Blake Wright and Garrette (Anabel) Wright, all of Green Cove Springs; daughter Darrrian (Hunter) Hall of Brunswick; grandchildren Asher Hall and Esmeralda Rosalia Wright, who is expected to arrive in April of 2024; parents Pete and Glenda Wright of Baxley; grandmother Shirley Aspinwall of Baxley; brothers Billy (Cindy) Wright of Alma, Levi (Ashley) Wright of Baxley, Axel (Ariel) Wright of Arago, OR and Bart Brandies of Keystone Heights; sisters Jessica (Brian) Boone, Samantha (Jamie) Hall and Priscilla Brandies; and a multitude of extended family members and friends.

The family received friends prior to the funeral service held Saturday, January 6 in the Chapel of Swain Funeral Home with Rev. Roger Daniels officiating. Interment followed in Red Oak Baptist Church Cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Calton Whitty, Chad Whitty, Jacob Davis, Nathan Higginbotham, Adam Higginbotham and Decky Purvis.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the 24-7 house: www.twentyfour7houseinc.com.

Funeral arrangements by Swain Funeral Home, Baxley, Georgia.