

THOMAS A. BLAIR

Thomas A. “Tom the Taxman” Blair, 76, passed away January 5, 2024 in Brunswick, Georgia. Tom was born March 17, 1947. He called Callahan home for 21 years where he ran a successful tax service. Tom was well versed on tax laws and had so much knowledge about everything. He was also known to share his knowledge for hours. He loved to help people, loved to talk a lot and loved his dogs. There was never a time that you visited his business that the dogs weren’t either running around or up in his lap. He and his wife and companion Jeanne, who passed away in 2021, ran the business together and they both had a love for dogs. Tom always meant well and wanted to do his best for everyone.

In Tom’s memory, those wishing to make donations, do so to the local Human Society in his name.
