

CFA-VAG MicroGallery Exhibit Proposal & Agreement Part 1 of 2 (Rev 10/2023]

I am applying to show my work at one of the Center for the Arts NH microgalleries. If accepted, I am responsible for the delivery, installation, maintenance and removal of my solo or group exhibit according to my exhibit period. Neither the MicroGallery nor the CFA can store my artwork that I have not removed, and it may be disposed in accordance with NH law if necessary.

My artwork will be for sale when this exhibit opens. I understand that the CFA produces advertising and promotional material for my exhibit. The CFA and MicroGalleries provide a Host, beverages and snacks for my opening reception. In return, either I or my representative will endeavor to attend my opening reception, I intend to replace my artwork that is sold at this exhibit with my comparable work. I will maintain my exhibit for the duration of the exhibit period.

Neither the CFA nor any other entity involved with this exhibit provides insurance for my artwork, and is not responsible for any loss or damage. I may provide my own insurance.

I will receive 70% of the price of my artwork that is sold at this exhibit. The CFA will retain 30%.

There is a $25 fee payable upon acceptance to cover administrative and advertising costs.

Only CFA Visual Arts Guild (VAG) members may exhibit at the New London NH MicroGalleries.- To join, go to <https://centerfortheartsnh.org/artist> The venues are Bar Harbor Bank & Trust (321 Main St.), New London Inn (353 Main St.) ,Blue Loon Bakery (across from Morgan Hill Bookstore at Lovering Lane) , and the New London Hospital.
