July 13th / Show and Site Information:

- Show times are 10am to 4pm. Plan to arrive early enough to have your set up done before 9:30am. No break down before 3:45pm please. You may park in the adjacent parking lot before 9am.
- You may not leave your car on the adjacent street or in the adjacent parking lots later than 9am or you will be asked to move your vehicle. If you have any questions when you arrive please see the Center for the Arts representatives at the information booth.
- Your tent space is 10' x 10'. Please be respectful of the neighboring tents. Freestanding racks or bins should be placed with your exhibiting neighbors in mind. You may use tent stakes.
- Exhibitors may display works only in the category registered on the application form below.
- You may not display past awards, ribbons or advertisements.
- On Saturday morning please bring your site map and packet and plan to arrive early to set up in a timely fashion. The show starts promptly at 10am. You may park and unload 7-9am, but as soon as your equipment is unloaded you must move your car to the designated parking areas, no later than 9am.
- After disassembling your tent, you may drive back and park on the adjacent street for pick up, but only at assigned times. You will not be permitted to park on the street longer than 15 minutes to load.
- The park needs to be vacated by 5:30pm. Please pick up and dispose of all paper and refuse in and around your site. You are responsible for the appearance of your site when you leave.

You will be notified of your tent site number by June 30th.

At that time, you will receive an Orientation Packet with the site map, directions to Arts in the Harbor, and some postcards/handouts for your own announcements.

Ads will be placed in the Hippo Press, Soo Ni Pi Magazine, NH To Do Magazine, Lake Sunapee papers and info guides to advertise the event.

Artists and artisans are strongly encouraged to use email, email newsletters, website announcements, and social media like Facebook, Instagram and X (Twitter) to notify clients and friends about the show ahead of time! If you have an online store or other retail outlet, you can also use these opportunities to share about your upcoming show by including a card or note with your customer's purchase.
