

Holistic, Executive, High Performance Skills Development

Based on your organisational values and integrity

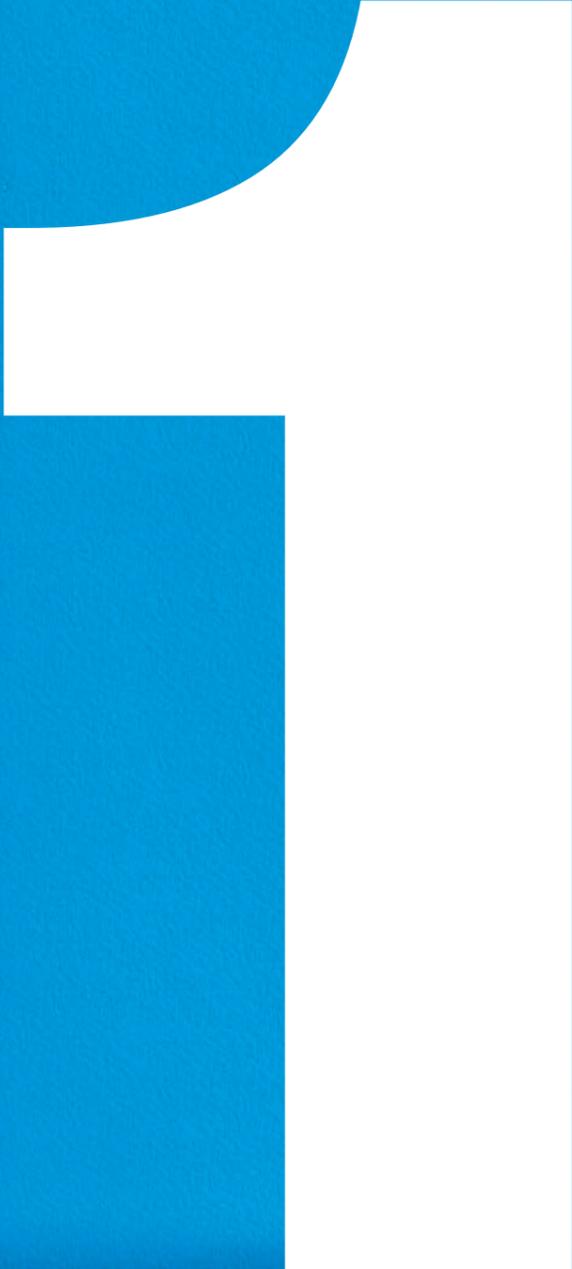

INTEGRITY VALUES
LEADERSHIP

We are committed to supporting people to reach their potential. Our goal is to shift behaviours through self-understanding, identification of performance gaps and a commitment to learning and leading aligned to values and integrity.

Integrity Values Leadership (IVL) are committed to shifting behaviours through interactive, engaging and different learning strategies. The diversity of our world class facilitators and high performance guest leaders provides a unique blend of experience that effectively transitions between business and sport.

What We Offer

Proven experience in behavioural change which creates world class high performance skills through innovative and engaging learning experiences.

1. Integrity Leadership 12-Month Program

We provide a holistic, executive, high performance skills training program based on organisational values and integrity. The combination of three face-to-face interactive workshops, individual coaching support and world class facilitators promotes meaningful behavioural shift.

2. "Accelerating Leaders" Two-Day Workshop

An impactful, targeted workshop covering wellbeing, preparation, teamwork, resilience, strategy and leadership. Built around activity-based training techniques, this workshop is the fast-tracking program your future leaders need to take them to the next level.

3. Bespoke Development for Executives + Teams

We tailor and offer informative, insightful keynotes, high performance skill modules and workshops in collaboration with you. Delivered by the world's top sports match officials, players and captains of industry.

Respond to the current industry leadership challenges of making selfless integrity-based decisions consistent with the values strategy of the team.

Create a leadership culture and framework that will produce sustainable success.

Increase individual self-awareness. Participants will better understand their default behaviours and those under pressure that impact their effectiveness and that of the team.

Unlock the potential of managers – either getting them unstuck or out of a performance slump through exposure to high performance learnings from sport.

Confront the fears of leaders and managers by offering technique options and tools to try (giving them permission to make mistakes and be vulnerable in the training environment).

Develop holistic wellbeing and performance personal and professional through face-to-face team sessions, supported with individual coaching.
