

Breakstone Family Hold Ninth Conclave

The Breakstone family, descendants of the seven Breakstone brothers, who, over 100 years ago, lived in the small city of Ponemon, Russia, held their annual reunion at Conneaut Lake Park, Pa., the last week of August.

The affair was sponsored by the Pittsburgh division of the Breakstones. It was attended by more than 100 members of the family from all parts of the United States. Chicago, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Scranton and Danville, Ill. were some of the cities represented.

These reunions have been held annually since 1923. The divisions of the family are hosts in turn. Next year the gathering will be held in the vicinity of New York.
