Dr. Jon Kedrowski

Camp Directors

A home-grown product, a former shooting guard locally for the Eagle Valley Devils (1995-98), and at the college level for the Valparaiso University Crusaders (1999-2002), Dr. Jon Kedrowski returns to the Valley for the 15th Annual N.O.D. camp after 4 years as a High School Head Coach (2003-2006) at Berean Academy HS in Tampa, Florida, & (2006-2007) for the Corvallis Blue-Devils in Western Montana. Kedrowski played in three NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Tournaments in his college career. Kedrowski is a Professor at Colorado Mountain College and currently serves as an advanced scout for Fort Lewis College Basketball in Durango, CO. He's climbed Mt. Everest Four Times and continues to inspire the campers to set goals and achieve them on and off the court.

Dr. Kedrowski is again looking forward to joining forces with his long-time friend and basketball cohort Daniel Steffensen to bring valuable fundamental basketball skills, pride, and experience to the 15th year of the N.O.D. Basketball Academy camps. Most importantly, the camp proceeds benefit the N.O.D. Everest Foundation supporting youth in Eagle County and athletics programs at EVHS and in the Vail Valley.

Camp Summary

Come and be a part of the continuing tradition in the lower Eagle Valley as Jon Kedrowski returns to his hometown to provide the best individual instruction available on Colorado's western slope. We will include master teachers for both offensive and defensive basketball fundamentals along with enthusiastic coaches from the college and high school ranks. Other points of emphasis will include camp lectures during the all day camp by some successful coaches, former players, and active professionals. The talks will focus on education, goal setting, discipline, and teamwork. Our philosophy is that life is more than basketball, and many aspects of basketball carry over to real life.

Camp Highlights

Competitive spirit will be alive throughout the week with contests including 5-on-5, 3-on-3, 1-on-1, three-point shooting and a special emphasis on free throw shooting and form-shooting by Camp Instructor Coach Daniel Steffensen, Associate Head Coach from Fort Lewis College in Durango. All contests will be broken down by age and ability. This camp is a commuter camp only and offered at an incredibly affordable price.

2020 Camp Features Coaches Bob Pietrack and Daniel Steffensen Steffensen played basketball at Fort Lewis from 2009 to 2011. He was the 2011 Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Shootout's MVP in 2011 and helped guide the Skyhawks to the Sweet 16 in the NCAA Division II Tournament. He is Associate Head Coach at Fort Lewis College.
