

Environmental Journalists of Australia

Empowering storytellers to inform communities, preserve environments, and share the voices of a nation.

You are welcome here.

Storytellers of all nationalities are invited to become members.

Our mission is to foster a community of storytellers who are committed to raising awareness of environmental issues in Australia and beyond.

Through collaborative engagement, educational initiatives, and a shared passion for advocacy, we aim to inform public discourse, influence policy, and inspire action.

It's our part to ensure all people can enjoy the natural beauty of Australia - now and forever.

Collaboration between nations

Bringing together and celebrating the diverse voices, perspectives, and ecosystems, reflecting the rich tapestry of our natural and human landscapes.

Transparency

Promoting journalistic ethics and integrity, transparency, accuracy, and fairness.

Promoting sustainable development

Giving voice to our priceless landscapes, ecosystems, and natural resources, and promoting policy solutions that work.

VOICE OF THE EARTH. STORY OF A NATION.