

The University of Findlay

1st Annual Information Assurance Forum: Trends & Opportunities in Computer Security

November 21, 2002
Ritz Auditorium

9:00 – 9:15 Introduction – Dr. John Cindric
General Interest, Students

9:20 – 10:00 Overview – Loren Wagner
State of Security (Trends in security, government, academia, & business. Need for increased education and collaboration.)
General Interest, Students

Break

10:15 – 10:55 NSA/DOD Organizations and Opportunities – Christine Nickell
Key learning and hiring criteria. What are employers looking for in a candidate?
General Interest, Students

11:00 – 12:15 Other University's Experiences – Dr. Bill Oblitey, Indiana University of Pennsylvania and Dr. Gregg Gunsch, Air Force Institute of Technology
Faculty, Administration, Grants Office, Students

12:20 – 1:45 Lunch & Keynote speaker – Sean Burke, Centracomm Communications
Security Opportunities from a Business/ISP Perspective
By Invitation

2:00 - 2:45 NIETP Program Update – National INFOSEC Education and Training Program – Christine Nickell
Faculty, Administration, Grants Office, Students

3:00 – 3:45 Special Agent David Barnes, FBI
A day in the life of investigating cybercrime: What students should think of and prepare for if interested in the field
General Interest, Students

3:45 – 4:15 Meet the Students Reception
Students, Speakers

4:15 – 4:30 Close conference