

SANTA CLARITA VALLEY QUILT GUILD

Promoting the art of quilting through sharing, friendship, education, and meaningful service to our community.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Members,

Happy New Year! I wish you all luck keeping your New Year's resolutions; especially those quilting ones!

The very first thing I'd like to do is thank Kris and the 2016 board for doing such a great job. We all learned new techniques and made great friends. Secondly, I'd like to welcome to all the new and returning board members. I am looking forward to working with each of you in this coming year.

We have big plans brewing for 2017. I'm sure everyone will want to join in on the fun so don't forget to renew your membership this month!

Kris and Linda will be filling in for me in January and February as I am going to be taking the C.E.R.T. (Community Emergency Response Training). Of course, it happens to be on Thursday nights 6PM-9PM for 8 weeks. As we all live in earthquake country, Kris and I have discussed that this is an important class all members of our community should look into taking. I will be in communication with both Kris and Linda the whole time; you can call or e-mail me if you need anything. I hope all of you can understand the struggle I'm having with two important meetings that happen at the same time. I will be there with all of you in my heart.

My Quilt Guild Resolutions this year are to get to know each of you even better, quilt all the UFOs piling up on my shelves, and attend more workshops. I'm challenging all of you to tackle those UFOs and get to know more about your fellow members. Let's enjoy learning new and exciting ways to finish old projects.

Here's to us having a year full of fun, friendship, and quilting!

Thank you all,

Denise Rifilato

PROGRAMS

I am excited to report that our January meeting will be a Habitat for Humanity – Pick Your Quilt meeting! As you all are aware, we have several veteran families that have received their homes in the last several months, but some of those have not picked up quilts. Please bring needles, white thread and a pair of thread nippers to help sew labels onto the lovely quilts that will find a new home.

This year, I get to try and do both the newsletter and programs – so, be prepared for email blasts whenever there's something of interest from a Programs perspective. I so hope we are able to get our Quilt Show up and running in 2017 – it will give us so many more options for Programs in future years!

Keep on Quilting!

Sue Grannis

MEMBERSHIP

Welcome to 2017! Hope your holidays were wonderful. Time to return to all the fun by renewing your membership in SCVQG. This year we have a new Renewal Form which includes all your contact information for the directory plus emergency contact information and photograph permission.

Everyone needs to complete the form and return with a check or cash. Dues are $35, or $30 for members 65 and over. Checks are payable to SCVQG and must be paid by March 1 to be included in the directory.

Please remember to wear your name tags so we can get to know each other. You can purchase a name tag for $10 or make your own.

Looking forward to seeing everyone. Come join in the fun!

Linda von Mohr & Patty Gutierrez

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Once again, our guild has had a very productive year. We have gifted the Veteran families in the habitat community with 31 quilts this year. It was wonderful to be able to display the quilts in the community. We met many veteran families as they enjoyed Halloween festivities and selected their quilt.

The Painted Turtle Camp received 7 twin quilts, 60 take home quilts and 33 turtle pillows for their campers. We sent 2 crocheted blankets. They were very thankful for quite a bit of polyester batting from us. This is used to stuff the turtle pillows.

Our guild participated in a drive to provide quilts to the families of the Pulse Night Club massacre.

We provided 6 completed quilts and 13 blocks. The Castaic animal shelter received 30 cat mats for the kitty habitat. Adding to the count for the Senior Center a total of 22 placemats for their Valentine and Easter programs.

Looking forward to seeing you at our table this year!

Dana Montague

COMMUNITY SERVICE – SENIOR CENTER

I want to thank everyone for helping make placemats for the 2016 senior home delivery service. We were able to make the quota needed 275!!!!!!

We received this lovely thank you note

Thank you so much for the beautiful handmade placemats you made for our home delivered meal recipients! They were very pleased to receive them. Many called to express their appreciation and raved about how nice they are! What an amazing gesture that was on your part. I don't know how to thank you enough!

What a beautiful thank you note!

For 2016, we also turned in 27 shawls and 2 wheelchair lap blankets to the Senior Center.

Goals for 2017

325 placemats

30 shawls

15 lap blankets

Measurements for these items:

Placemats-initial 19x14, after design trim to 18x13

Shawls- finished approximately 27x65

Wheelchair lap- 36x42

At the December meeting we had 45 placemats turned in. AMAZING! What a great start for 2017!

Thanks again for all that have helped. Great job everyone

Carol Carter

COMMUNITY SERVICE – OTHER PROJECTS

Just wanted you to know that the fabric in my garage has been reduced by a considerable quantity. The smaller sorted amounts went to several groups including wheelchair bags, eyeglass ministry (used up the fat quarters), sewing for Linus, and sewing for little girl's dresses. There was quite a bit that was sold at the meeting in November and thank you all for helping to support our community service projects in that way. I still have some that can be used for backings. I hope to get with our Senior Center projects manager (Carol Carter) as a lot of it is calico type fabrics.

In its place are over 50 twin size quilts. At this time most of them are for Turtle Camp. There are a few that would be more suitable for someone older. The ones for the VA are completed.

I have quite a few blocks to assemble into tops and would love to have some of you come over. We cut sashing and borders and the sewing goes fairly quick. I will be looking at dates in February to do this. Let me know at the Community Service table if you would be willing to help.

The Guide Dog quilt will go to the quilter the day after our meeting. It will be delivered to them in February.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT – KHTS HOME AND GARDEN SHOW

We just wanted to let you all know that we will not be participating in the Home and Garden Show this year because the show organizers will not provide us with a tent enclosure. It is sad that this is the case, because we got some great exposure from this show in the past. However, some of our quilts suffered – as well as some of us who attended! We will decide whether to check in on this again next year – be sure and let a board member know if you have an opinion about our participation.

WAYS AND MEANS

Well first of all thank you Kris Dolan and Board for your service to the Guild. Many wonderful things happened under your reign and I am so proud of what has been achieved for our community.

Our Christmas Party was a lot of fun. So grateful to Dana Montague for supplying us with all the Christmas fabric to hand out to our amazing members. Also, a shout out to Candy's Quiltworks for her support of our guild.

Our baskets were well received again. Thank you, members! I really appreciate all the support you show for our cause. The Homespun basket went home with Joyce Wilkinson. The Star basket went to Caryl Jo Fox. The Plaid basket went home with Linda Von Mohr. Our thank-yous went to Kathy Foster, Mary Jones and Carol Carter.

The silent auction netted the guild an extra $86.50 and the drawings came in with $143.00 So that is $229.50 that the guild did not have before. Our Year to Date Total for Ways and Means is $1698.50. Not a bad year all in all!

A very special Thank you to Merrilyn Lee for helping me in a pinch you were such a joy to spend time with and a great help. Also, Joyce Wilkinson who is always willing to lend a hand. Thank you, Ladies... you're what makes our guild great.
