

Santa Clarita Valley Quilt Guild

“Promoting the art of quilting through sharing, friendship, education, and meaningful service to our community.”

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It was a pleasure to see so many members at the January meeting. Didn't we have fun discussing our favorite and least favorite tools? We certainly can learn a great deal from each other.

I hope that there are members who are designing quilts for our 2012 Opportunity Quilt. The sooner we get started on the planning the sooner we will have a quilt.

I look forward to see all the members at the Feb. meeting.

Barbara Montejo

PROGRAMS

I hope everyone had a great time at our January "Tea and Social". I enjoyed learning which tools never to invest in and which tools are the most useful. What I found most interesting was that the most useful tools were without doubt the least expensive and often something that was originally made for a completely different use! Quilters are a most inventive and resourceful group! Congratulations to both our winners, Jeanie Honadel and (I hope I have the correct Connie) Connie Hall.

PROGRAMS Continued

Looking forward to hearing all about batting from Donna for our February meeting and I am really excited about the Stack and Whack class the following Saturday (February 12th). For everyone who signed up but have not gotten your checks to me, I will need your checks at the February meeting to be confirmed for the class. Please make them out to the Santa Clarita Valley Quilt Guild or SCVQG. You can also drop them in the mail to me at my address (40166 Calle El Clavelito, Green Valley, Ca 91390) if you prefer.

As those of you who get your newsletters via email are aware, we did not have any interest in the class I had selected by Judy Sisneros for March. I have sent out an email blast checking for interest in that or any of her other classes; based on response thus far I don't think we will have enough interest for a class in March. I will let you know at the February meeting what the status of that class is.

We will be having a Community Service night for our April meeting; I am looking forward to hearing what the project will be from Helena and Dana.

Leora Raikin of African Folklore Embroidery will be speaking in May and as we had no interest shown in a class the following Saturday we will not be having a class in May.

Looking forward to seeing everyone at the February meeting, Donna has shared with me that she will have samples of different types of batting and plans to make this a fun and informative meeting.

The guild board and anyone else interested is invited to join our guest speaker, Donna Chipperfield, for dinner at the El Presidente Restaurant across from the Church prior to our meeting on February 10 at 5:30 PM. You are invited to join us at your own expense. Please let me know prior to Tuesday, February 8th as I will need to make reservations. You can either email me at EkMoore@aol.com or Edrakm@gmail.com. If you prefer you can call me at either 661-270-0630 or 818-422-0601, both numbers have voice mail on them if I am not available. See you then!

MEMBERSHIP NEWS

I am still collecting 2011 annual membership dues. If you can't make the meetings, you may send your payment to me. My mailing address is in the guild's directory, or email me for it.

$30 for regular membership.

$25 for members over 62.

For new members who choose to receive the paper newsletter there will be an additional $ 5.00 fee.

Grace period is until the March meeting.

A $ 5.00 late-fee will be applied to current members who make their payment after March. So please don't be a straggler.

For Associates/Sponsors (including a business card size ad in the newsletter) the dues are $50. A membership with a 1/4 page ad is $ 80.

If you need a new guild membership card, please ask me at the meeting. The cards are filled in individually and handed out annually per membership year (January thru December).

Sign in when you arrive, so I can get an accurate head- count, and to enter you in the drawing for a door prize.

All the best, and see you soon,
Adva Price
Membership Chairperson

GUILD LIBRARY

From our librarian, Carmen Recinos,

Come by at the next meeting and check out all the new subjects and ideas. It's a great way to learn more about quilting and quilting techniques. And no late fees to worry about.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

First of all we want to thank everyone for all the hard work they did in order for our quilt guild to complete our goals for 2010.

Senior Shawls - 16

Quilts of Valor Blocks - 87

Soldiers lap/wheelchair quilts and larger - 10 lap plus 5 larger ones

Painted Turtle - 50

Placemats for Senior Center - 290 plus 24

Red/White/Blue ones for decorating

Under the Bridges -homeless 30 quilts 10 pillows

MS Quilt -

Aprons - SCV Shelter - 10

Animal Shelter - 46 pads for cages

Thanks for taking the time to fill out the survey we passed around at the holiday party.

Be sure to check out the community service table and select the item you would like work on.

We always appreciate batting scraps as these are good to piece together for placemats and shawls.

The guild will have an "odds and ends" table set up in the back of the room at our regular guild meeting. Items will be reasonable priced as well as reasonable donations accepted. Be sure and check it out!

Helena Woodworth and Dana Montague
Community Service Chairpersons

BLOCK OF THE MONTH

Mary Beth Will was the winner of the set of fat quarters for the Block of the Month. Thank you to the members who made blocks.

The block for March is a repeat of the Rail Fence Flag block which we used in Oct. There will be kits available at the Feb. meeting. Do stop by the Block of the Month table and pick up a kit or two.

SUNSHINE AND SHADOWS

To those of us who have been with the Guild over 10 years, you will recall Jeanette Emerson-Tenting. On January 15, 2011, Jeanette, age 55, passed away after suffering a major heart attack this past December. She supported the Guild in many ways, including serving as Membership Chair and Librarian. Due to family and job obligations, she had to curtail her outside activities in recent years, which unfortunately included the Quilt Guild.

On behalf of the SCVQG, we extend our deepest sympathy to her young daughter, Jasmine, and the rest of her family.

Lola Dyroy,
Secretary

HOSPITALITY

Hello All -

I have a feeling that 2011 is going to be a great year! Thanks to all of you who brought the delicious food to the January Meeting. A big thanks to Eddie for coming up with idea of the Tea.

February is, of course, Valentine's Day! Let's find inspiration in this holiday and bring food that will either fill our hearts with love (for me, that would be chocolate, what would it be for you?) or take care of our hearts (yummy, healthy vegetables and fruits, etc.).

Thanks also to the new members of the Hospitality Committee. Let's make this year fun as we come up with ideas to make all of our meetings more festive.

Food: A-F

Drinks: G-J

Regards,
Mary Beth Shimkus-Will and
Your Hospitality Committee

Scholarships

One of the perks of membership in the SCVQG is the opportunity to apply for up to a $50 scholarship to take a Quilt class. After taking the class, and, fulfilling one of the options to return something to the guild, you will receive the scholarship money. For all the details please stop at the Scholarship table at the guild meeting and pick up an application.
