“Promoting the art of quilting through sharing, friendship, education, and meaningful service to our community.”

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

A special thank you to Paula Fleischer and Adva Price for the fun game night they organized for our August meeting. A good time was had by all. You both should take the show on the road!

Paula has agreed to organize our next Quilt Show. Please step up and volunteer for one of her committees. Many hands make the job so much easier and you will have fun too.

See you all at the September meeting.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH

Thank you to all the members who made blocks. We ended up with 23 beautiful blocks.

Anne Watts won a packet of fat quarters. Congratulations, Anne.

The Block for October is a Log Cabin block with an appliqued star in the center. Yes, it is a little more work but the effort is worth it. Please look at the sample at the September meeting and become inspired!

PROGRAMS

I understand that everyone had a great time at the August Games night meeting. Sorry to miss it but I was in Texas for my grandson Sean's Birthday (he was 12 this year, time goes so fast!).

Sue Rasmussen will be our speaker in September, I have asked her to speak about Needles and Threads. She will also be doing her workshop "Single Tree". We still have a very limited number of spaces left for the workshop if anyone is still interested. If you would like to visit her website it is www.suerasmussenquilts.com

In October we will be having a Community Service Sewing Night and I am sure Dana and Helena will let us know more about that soon. I am also working with Kathy Amparan to see if we can arrange a time to do the class that was canceled in July, "Paint Your Quilt". I hope to have that information to everyone soon.

PROGRAMS Continued

In November we will be having Cathy Van Bruggen speaking about Color Confidence and she will be doing a applique workshop "Hummingbird Delight", if you would like to purchase her kit for the this workshop please let me know by the October meeting so she will know how many kits to bring or of course you can bring your own fabric and she will have the pattern for you. Cathy's website is www.cathyvb.com if you would like to take a look at her work.

We still need volunteers for the Holiday Party please let me or Barbara know if you or your group would like to be in charge of this year's Holiday Party. Beth Murphy has agreed to once again speak and bring her Pin Cushion Boutique "Sweet Treats" for our shopping pleasure this year.

QUILT SHOW 2012

We have a place and a date for our quilt show: Saturday April 21, 2012 at a lovely space in the Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha church on Copperhill at Seco, thanks to Barbara Montejo for arranging that! During the next 9 months, we will create all the committees necessary to put up a great show, and we will need your help! I have volunteered to chair the show and I would love to hear from you (via email or Facebook is BEST) if you are interested in any of the committees listed below, or if you have ideas for something new you want to see at our show.

Please come to our first meeting on Thursday, Sept 22, 7pm to 9pm at my house: 25836 Via Candice, Valencia. I plan to have a very limited number of show meetings (perhaps five). I would LOVE to see some of our new members join us; it's a great way to meet folks in the guild.

Do any of these committees interest you? Don't worry; you won't be doing these things alone! I'm looking for Indians AND chiefs!

- FRAMES: Move frames and tool box from storage to quilt show location, and then back again after show. A pickup truck is useful.
- HOSPITALITY: Set up hospitality area for guild volunteers and vendors (just light snacks, not lunch).
- PUBLICITY: Get show listings in Quilt magazines, local press and SCCQG meeting
- OUTDOOR SIGNS: Put up outdoor signage before and day of show. Includes facility location signs from Freeway and signage at location.
- BOUTIQUE: collect items from members for sale or raffle baskets. Arrange during the show, sell raffle tickets and small items.

- VENDORS: Responsible for all vendor contact before and during show. Sets price & size of booths, arrange for table rental if needed. Provide snacks for vendors, lunch delivery, change during the day.
- GUILD & LOBBY: Set up Guild information table and lobby table décor.
- DOORPRIZE: Collect door prizes from vendors; arrange door prize booth and distribution during the day.
- PHOTOS: Take photos of all quilts just before show opens, and then create CD for sale during the show. Computer skills necessary for this.
- REGISTRATION & EXHIBIT: Create registration forms, set deadlines. Register quilts. Plot out hanging locations. Accept quilts at meeting before show; oversee hanging, take-down and distribution.
- CATALOG: Create printed catalog of quilts for distribution at lobby on day of show. Includes map and ballot.
- QUILT SIGNS: Create informational signs to hang near each near each quilt in show. Hang signs by 9am at the show. (Computer needed)
- RIBBONS: Make ribbons for Chairs and Viewers choice
- LUNCH VENDOR: Arrange for a lunch vendor OR organize lunch items for sale at show. Arrange a seating area at the show.

- STAFFING: Get staffing requirements from each committee. Encourage guild members to sign-up. Establish staff sign-in process.
- TREASURER: Get change and cash boxes before the show. Pick up cash during the show and make deposits.

I can be reached on Facebook (Paula Resnik Fleischer), via email at pvfleischer@hotmail.com or phone 661-255-1076.

I'm looking forward to working with you on the show!

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Hi ladies,
I just want to thank all of you for all the help we've received completing our goals this year.

We still need help with the following.....
we are short about 20 turtles... in order to reach our goal of 75.....We'll have some kits at the meeting for them if you are so inclined.

We only have about 120 placemats for the Senior Center and they deliver about 300 plus meals per day.....so we are trying for as many as we can get. These are about 14 x 18" but can be any size.

The last project for the year is the Senior Shawls. We deliver these around the holidays to help keep our Seniors warm. We only have about 6 of these. They need to be about 60 - 65" long by 26" wide. We will be happy to supply the fabric, batting etc. for these.

October will be our Sew Night and we hope to complete some of these projects at that time.

Please call a couple days before the meeting for any fabric you would like and we'll do our best to get it for you.

ROUND ROBIN NEWS

We did it! It has been 8 months and no one dropped out and we have all kept our commitment. We deserve a very BIG pat on the back for a job well done.

ROUND ROBIN NEWS Continued

In September we bring back our Round Robin from August and pick up our own block which has become a wall hanging, quilt or?? We thought it would be fun to share our Round Robins with the other guild members and also give a chance for all of us to see what happened to projects we may have worked on earlier or perhaps never seen before.

Your Round Robin Chicks, Susie Bakman and Anne Watts

HOSPITALITY NEWS

Did you know that September is National Apple Month, National Rice Month, National Peas and Radish Month and Women's Friendship Month here in America? I didn't either. Let's bring foods that celebrate obscure holidays here in the US or around the world. As great as these celebrations sound, September is my favorite month because it contains my birthday. That would be Sept. 4th, in case you wondered, and, yes, September is Shameless Self-promotion Month (no joke).

Food: N-V
Drinks: W-Z

Thanks to Rhea Fetter, Ruth Grossnickle, Bob Elliott, Lola Dyroy, Carol Harrison, Carolyn Walker, Gerry Hogan, Carrie Gereb, Millie Kerr, Connie Hall, Barbara Montejo and anyone else who brought the delicious treats and drinks last month. It made the evening that much more fun!

Regards,
The Hospitality Committee
