

SANTA CLARITA VALLEY QUILT GUILD

Our mission is to stimulate an interest in quilts, to promote and advance the art of quilt making, to conduct educational programs and services in the design techniques and preservation of quilts and quilt making; and to promote quilting in philanthropic endeavors.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I hope that everyone has had a productive year and is looking forward to enjoying the holidays with friends and family. I am off to Atlanta a few days after our party. I get to meet the two newest members of our growing family and will be finishing a quilt for the youngest while I am there. I have enjoyed being at the meetings with everyone and feel privileged to be working with so many wonderful and talented women. Thanks to everyone for the support the last three months.

I have a few guild business notes to pass on to everyone so please read in case they affect you! For everyone leaving a job (like me), bring the notebooks (or pages) to the meeting to pass on to the incoming officer or committee chair. You can make arrangements outside of the party of course, but I would love for you both to be there to celebrate with us. We are going to try and keep the business portion short (officer installation and thanks to outgoing board members) so we can eat, talk, shop with Quilty Pleasures, and do our heart swap. If you haven't signed up for a table or food, please email Dolores Roux-Jones. Her article has which items are still needed. Also check the website for a few minor changes in next year's schedule.

We also have a request for Sara Nelson, our membership chair. This is the busy time of the year as we are renewing our memberships. Sara needs a helper or a co-chair to help collect the forms, money and do follow-up. This is something we would love to have someone step up to do now, before our holiday party as that is when the renewal process begins. We put out the directory from this effort. Please contact Sara or myself if you are interested.

We will skip the December board meeting. Our January board meeting will be postponed to 9AM on Feb 4th at the beginning of the Triple R meeting. Since the officers and committee chairs need to be at both, we hope this will make it easier for everyone. If you can't make it, be sure to get your report to Marcia.

Remember there is no Show and Share at this meeting, but we are having an IFFI drawing. Joyce is giving details this month as well. Do read on! I am reading my notes from our business meeting last week and I could keep going, but I know the others will be telling you things in their articles. So my last note is to say, please come, share food, share friends and fun, maybe buy something, win a raffle or drawing, but do come.

When I was working on this article, I happened to see a post from Sue Bennorth about the loss of her husband, Jim. We have sent her this plant and will have a card from the guild to sign in December. Members are welcome to send their own card or note.

PROGRAMS

HAPPY HOLIDAYS EVERYONE!!!

Our December meeting will be all about FUN!

December is really busy for the Guild. We will draw the winning tickets for the Opportunity Quilt and for the IFFI Project. We will be thanking our retiring board and welcoming the new board for 2023. There will be no Show and Share at the December meeting.

Angie at Quilty Pleasures will bring us their traveling Quilt Shop and that is always lots of fun!

The Guild will also be having our annual Holiday Pot Luck. If you have not yet signed up for your assignment, please contact Dolores directly.

Connie Sitar is our speaker for January. I will have the sign up sheet for her February 18th Workshop, and her supply list. The Workshop will be held at Sara's Club House from 9am to 3pm and the fee will be $20.00

Big hugs all around,

Kris Dolan

NOMINATIONS COMMITTEE

Your Nominating Committee is happy to report that Melissa Nilsen has agreed to be nominated for the position of First Vice President! As you may remember, at last month's Guild Meeting, we had an incomplete slate of nominees. We had no one willing to accept the nomination for the First VP position. Four positions were voted and approved. Melissa returned from her travels and has agreed to be nominated for this position. We will do a VERY quick vote to approve her into this position at the December Guild Meeting.

Thank you,

Darlene, Gabrielle, and Dana

HEARTS FOR THE HOLIDAYS

We will be having a (voluntary) Heart exchange at the December Holiday Party. Bring it unwrapped and ready to hang on a tree. During the evening, anyone who brought a heart will leave with a heart. If you are bringing a guest, you may want to bring two hearts so they can leave with one as well. We made some guidelines to follow but as we always say, there will be no quilt police. Just one request to have the year and your name or initials

The heart should be:

- No larger than 5.25" wide and 3.5" long.

- No thicker than 3/8"

- No heavier than 3 oz with embellishments

- Original design

- Hanging Ribbon Optional

- Sign your name or initials and year on the back.

2022 OPPORTUNITY QUILT

Another year has gone by and we will be drawing for the 2022 Opportunity Quilt at December's meeting (photo of the quilt is at the end of the newsletter). If you haven't yet turned in your tickets, you can still do so at the meeting before we have the drawing. There will be a second prize of a beautiful table runner. Good luck to everyone!

Doryce Fitzgerald

IFFI CHALLENGE

At the December meeting, we will be drawing for our two winners for the year. The cut off day to let me know what IFFI's you have finished for the year is December 1.

Looks like we will be doing IFFI next year 2023. In January, I will have the new sign-up sheets. The rules will be the same, except you will need to bring your finished IFFI to a guild meeting to have it checked off by me or a representative for IFFI. Bring your list of 10 projects you hope to finish in 2023 and a signup fee of $10. Cash or Check made out to SCVQG...we can also do the square. The deadline to sign-up will be March 9th at our guild meeting. Get busy finding those projects you want to finish in 2023. Once again we will have 2 winners. Drawing will be at the December 2023 guild meeting. Good luck!

Joyce Wilkinson

TRIPLE R

You are invited to the annual TRIPLE R! This is not only for the Officers and Committee chairs but is open to anyone who is interested in how the Guild works and who does what when. Thinking you might like to be part of a committee or be an officer sometime in the future? This is for you. There is NO obligation to volunteer for a position if you attend.

Whenever we have a new officer and /or committee chair, the guild is required to conduct an event that will provide clarification of the rules, roles, and resources for guild positions. It will be a fun instructive time when you can learn how and why we do things.

On Saturday, February 4, 2023 from 9 am to 1:30 pm, we will be having our second annual TRIPLE R in the MPR at Bouquet Canyon Senior Apartments, 26705 Bouquet Canyon Road, Saugus, 91351). This is directly across the street from the Methodist Church.

We will be conducting the January Business Meeting (regularly scheduled for Thursday, January 19, 2023) at the beginning of that event as well.

Please contact Marcia Dains via email if you are interested in attending. We would love to have you!

Marcia Dains

COMMUNITY SERVICE

A special thank you to Denise Rifilato who joined us at Quilters at the Park in November. Denise is a current member and past president. She brought 31 quilts of various sizes to distribute to our charity groups. Not only was it a great trunk show, the ladies had a lot of fun deciding which of the charities would benefit the most. Thank you Denise for all of your hard work and generous donation!!!

BLOCK OF THE MONTH

Thank you all for a wonderful and successful year of Block of the Month. We made 6 quilts and 30-40 bowl cozies this year. From blocks with little tiny 1" squares to the microwave bowls sold at the boutiques, it seems like most of you have been involved this year. And you seem to really enjoy the blocks where you use your own scraps! You have all done great!

For December, we are taking a break and letting you work on your own projects. Remember, you can always find the previous BOM's on the Guild website.

Joan Anderson & Darlene Stump
