Come to a meeting, see how it works and enjoy the fun!!!

GUESTS & NEW MEMBERS

There were no new members or guests welcomed. As a reminder to members: we are all interested in the care, driving and showing of all classic GM vehicles. Interested guests are always welcome to our meetings.

The 35th Annual Chevy Showdown is closing in faster than one can imagine, April 1st is just 32 days away. The following Volunteer Work Sheet List has been passed around during Jan & Feb and will be available at the March 21st meeting. We ALWAYS need volunteers to support the evening before, setting up the 'parking zone signs', canopies and registration tables. Raffle basket items are still welcome, in fact if your unable to attend the show we encourage members to donate toward this fund raiser. You can purchased items or make a basket yourself.

A note from our Club President

I hope you are liking the rain that we are having this year. Come June you will be hoping for a downpour, "that will not happen"...

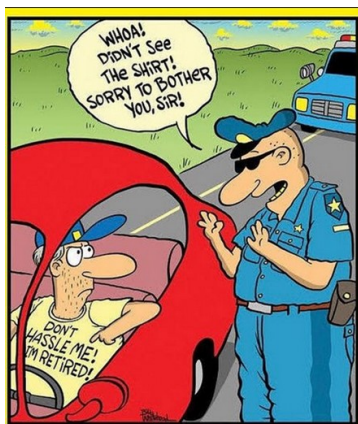

I would like to thank all of our club members that participated in our February 18th event at Laverna's Coffee Shop. We had 31 members and family show up for a fantastic breakfast that we always expect from Laverna's!

Chevy Showdown is now our top priority. We are on schedule for our main event. Trophy plaques have been ordered and flyers are being handed out at all the local events. Our mandatory car club insurance has been purchased from Hagerty that is required by the Desert Diamond Casino. Please register and support Chevy Showdown as it's only 5 weeks away. This is our only source of income for the entire year. We have always been able to donate $2,000 to four local charities since our 2016 car show. Let's make this another great show by supporting your clubs 35th Annual Car Show.

Don't forget about our clubs annual Poker Run on March 19. Ann and Debbie have been working on the route for a few months now. This is always a fun time for all and at its finish we all will stop at Ann's house for a potluck. Please respond to Ann's email for your RSVP and information & also let her know what you will be bringing to share.

Many car shows are just around the corner, so please look at Jeri's newsletter calendar and the upcoming events page to choose the ones that you might be interested in. Our spring season in Tucson is the best time for the great car events that are almost scheduled on every weekend until May.

Best Regards, Frank

I SWEAR I HAVE IT ALL TOGETHER. I JUST FORGOT WHERE I PUT IT.

Sometimes before bed time I fall asleep on the couch... it's my little sleep appetizer. My nappetizer.

28th Annual Sahuarita Classic Car Show

January 28th at the Quail Creek - Veterans Memorial Park. Approx. 318 presented their classics at this year, somewhat of a chilly day. Club members that participated Croan, Dixon, Hartman, Keppler, Kurz, Myers, Pella, Thatcher & West.

Bill Myers won first place in the Tri-Five class.

Cruise, BBQ and Blues Car Show—Feb 11th

The sold-out Cruise, BBQ, and Blues Car Show held this past February 11th at The Oro Valley Marketplace and presented by The Southern Arizona Arts & Cultural Alliance (SAACA) was scaled down this year from 200 to a maximum of 175 cars to allow more space. The day started out chilly and by mid-morning the wind picked up and sent several vendor tents flying into the air and scrambling their displays. Then it rained a little. In spite of the weather, I noted only a couple empty exhibitor spots and spectator traffic was heavy. There were also three live blues acts on stage and a variety of food options. The show is very well organized, the added space was big plus, and the $55 entry fee did not deter as the show was sold out with some very nice cars. The fee did get you a tee shirt, free coffee and dashes, and the over 30-trophies were metal sculptures made by a local artist. And according to SAACA all monies raised at the event will go directly to support SAACA's community arts and cultural outreach programs throughout the State which is what it's all about. Best of Show was picked up by Pat Croan's Corvair.

Thank you Pat for the photos and great write-up.

Laverna's Coffee Shop - Feb 18th

Our annual February club event at Laverna's Coffee Shop was another room filled with hungry members. .

Watch out for those crafty women

An old woman is riding in an elevator in a very lavish New York City Building, when a young and beautiful woman gets into the elevator, smelling of expensive perfume. She turns to the old woman and says arrogantly, "Romance" by Ralph Lauren, $150 an ounce!"

Then another young and beautiful woman gets on the elevator, and also very arrogantly turns to the old woman saying, "Chanel No. 5, $200 an ounce!"

About three floors later, the old woman has reached her destination and is about to get off the elevator. Before she leaves, she looks both beautiful women in the eye, then bends over, farts and says...
"Broccoli. 49 cents a pound!"

My superpower is holding onto junk for years and throwing it away a week before I need it.

We may not party like we use to, but if we take a nap we can party till dark! RUNNING WYLD

This year I'm going to be sensible and behave myself.

Stop laughing. I might be able to do it.

If you lose your to-do list, does that mean it's done?

We're gonna have to paint potatoes this Easter y'all...!

A guy was sitting quietly reading his paper when his wife walked up behind him and whacked him on the head with a magazine.

"What was that for?" he asked.

"That was for the piece of paper in your pants pocket with the name Laura Lou written on it," she replied.

"Two weeks ago when I went to the races, Laura Lou was the name of one of the horses I bet on," he explained.

"Oh honey, I'm sorry," she said. "I should have known there was a good explanation."

Three days later he was watching a ball game on TV when she walked up and hit him in the head again, this time with the iron skillet, which knocked him out cold. When he came to, he asked, "What in the world was that for?"

She replied, "Your horse called."

TWO LITTLE OLD LADIES....

Two little old ladies, Mira and Tara, were sitting on a park bench outside the local town hall where a flower show was in progress.

The short one, Mira leaned over and said, "Life is so boring. We never have any fun anymore.

For $10 I'd take my clothes off and streak through that stupid, boring flower show!"

"You're on!", said Tara, holding up a $10 bill.

So, Mira slowly fumbled her way out of her clothes. She grabbed a dried flower from a nearby display and held it between her teeth.

Then, completely na*ked, she streaked (as fast as an old lady can) through the front door of the flower show.

Waiting outside, her friend soon heard a huge commotion inside the hall, followed by loud applause and shrill whistling.

Finally, the smiling Mira came through the exit door surrounded by a cheering, clapping crowd.

"What happened", asked Tara ?

"I won $100 as 1st prize for 'Best Dried Arrangement!'"

THE ACTIVE MEMBER

Are you an active member? The kind that would be missed, or are you just contented that your name is on the list. Do you attend the meetings and mingle with the flock, or do you stay home and criticize and knock?

Do you take an active part to help the work along, or are you satisfied to be the kind that "just belong?". Do you ever go to visit a member who is sick, or leave the work to just a few and talk about the clique? There's quite a program scheduled that I'm sure you've heard about. And we'll appreciate it if you'll come and help us out. So come to the meetings often and help us with work and hearts. Don't be just a member, but take an active part. Think this over member:

You know right from wrong.

Are you an ACTIVE member or do YOU just belong?
