NO JUNE MEETING!!!!!!

July 18th, 2023
O'Rielly Chevrolet

Broadway & Wilmot - 6:30PM

Raffle gifts requested from:

Newcomb, Palmer, Pella, Pershing, Quihuis, Rosenberg, Smith, Thatcher & Thomas

For the information of new members, raffle gifts can be anything the member would like to donate, i.e., a gift card, a pie from a pastry shop, anything car related, etc. These inexpensive fun gifts are raffled off at the end of every meeting and half the monies collected goes to the CCCT Treasury and the other half goes into the Lotto that is held after the raffle. Come to a meeting, see how it works and enjoy the fun!!!

GUESTS & NEW MEMBERS

James Patrick (aka JP) with a '71 Impala was welcomed as a new member, no quests. As a reminder to members: we are all interested in the care, driving and showing of all classic GM vehicles. Interested guests are always welcome to our meetings.

When you're older and people text you in abbreviations like "GM". Well, General Motors to you too!! 😂😂

I've just released my own fragrance.

Nobody in the car seemed to like it.

I'm the type of wife that helps her husband look for his missing candy that I ate.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR CLUB PRESIDENT

I hope everyone's enjoying your Memorial Day holiday weekend. With this being the official start of the summer please take extra precautions when traveling and stay in tune to our Tucson's heat. At least many of our snowbirds have gone back home for the summer, so our Tucson streets are less crowded.

During our clubs May meeting, the membership that was present, voted unanimously to temporarily have our meetings every other month during the warmer summer months along with lower membership turnout. With this in mind we will not be having our June & August meetings at O'Rielly Chevrolet. We will be having our July meeting during which we will have our club elections. All nominations for officers and board members must be emailed to Ann and myself due to not having a June meeting. Thank you, Jeri for reminding me of this! Please nominate yourself or someone else, who you think would be interested and an asset to our club. Of course, all nominations will be verified for acceptance for anyone being nominated. A deadline of June 20th will be set for all club nominations. Once nominations are accepted a ballot showing all positions will be emailed to all club members. If you are unable to attend our July "election meeting" please email Ann or myself back with your voting response.

We will be having two June club events.

Our first event will be a community event at the Watermark Assisted Living Community at Continental Ranch on June 16th, from 9-11am. Our club was asked, and we accepted, the opportunity to have a vehicle display for the fathers at their facility to help celebrate Father's Day. Community events like these are always very welcomed by the assisted living communities, and have been heartwarming for all our participating members also. If interested please RSVP my email by June 10th. As of present we have 7 members that have volunteered. The location of the facility is 8689 N. Silverbell Rd, Marana.

Our second June club event will be at the Fiesta Lanes bowling alley on 501 W. River Rd, just west of Oracle. The date will be June 25th. Our club will be paying for two hours of bowling from 11 to 1 pm, including shoe rental, for all members interested in bowling. If you do not want to bowl, please come anyway to enjoy a fun time and lots of laughs with everyone, all while in the cool indoors. Afterwards we will have pizza for all. Of course, an RSVP to my email is very much required for this club event.

I hope all our club members will have a wonderful summer ahead, and I hope to see many of you in the very near future.

Best wishes, Frank

This could happen to any of us...

$5.37! That's what the kid behind the counter at Taco Bell said to me. I dug into my pocket and pulled out some lint and two dimes and something that used to be a Jolly Rancher. Having already handed the kid a five-spot, I started to head back out to the truck to grab some change when the kid with the Elmo hairdo said the hardest thing anyone has ever said to me. He said, "It's OK. I'll just give you the senior citizen discount."

I turned to see who he was talking to and then heard the sound of change hitting the counter in front of me. "Only $4.68" he said cheerfully.

I stood there stupefied. I am 56, not even 60 yet? A mere child! Senior citizen?

I took my burrito and walked out to the truck wondering what was wrong with Elmo. Was he blind? As I sat in the truck, my blood began to boil. Old? Me?

I'll show him, I thought. I opened the door and headed back inside. I strode to the counter, and there he was waiting with a smile.

Before I could say a word, he held up something and jingled it in front of me, like I could be that easily distracted! What am I now? A toddler?

"Dude! Can't get too far without your car keys, eh?" I stared with utter disdain at the keys. I began to rationalize in my mind!

"Leaving keys behind hardly makes a man elderly! It could happen to anyone!"

I turned and headed back to the truck. I slipped the key into the ignition, but it wouldn't turn. What now? I checked my keys and tried another. Still nothing.

That's when I noticed the purple beads hanging from my rear-view mirror. I had no purple beads hanging from my rear-view mirror.

Then, a few other objects came into focus. The car seat in the back seat. Happy Meal toys spread all over the floorboard. A partially eaten doughnut on the dashboard.

Faster than you can say ginkgo biloba, I flew out of the alien vehicle.

Moments later I was speeding out of the parking lot, relieved to finally be leaving this nightmarish stop in my life. That is when I felt it, deep in the bowels of my stomach: hunger! My stomach growled and churned, and I reached to grab my burrito, only it was nowhere to be found.

I swung the truck around, gathered my courage, and strode back into the restaurant one final time. There Elmo stood, draped in youth and black nail polish. All I could think was, "What is the world coming to?"

All I could say was, "Did I leave my food and drink in here"? At this point I was ready to ask a Boy Scout to help me back to my vehicle, and then go straight home and apply for Social Security benefits.

Elmo had no clue. I walked back out to the truck, and suddenly a young lad came up and tugged on my jeans to get my attention... He was holding up a drink and a bag. His mother explained, "I think you left this in my truck by mistake."

I took the food and drink from the little boy and sheepishly apologized.

She offered these kind words: "It's OK. My grandfather does stuff like this all the time."

All of this is to explain how I got a ticket doing 85 in a 40. Yes, I was racing some punk kid in a Toyota Prius. And no, I told the officer, I'm not too old to be driving this fast.

As I walked in the front door, my wife met me halfway down the hall. I handed her a bag of cold food and a $300 speeding ticket. I promptly sat in my rocking chair and covered up my legs with a blanket.

The good news was I had successfully found my way home.

P.S. Save the earth..... It's the only planet with chocolate!!!!

Fouled Up Facts

Historical facts you'll wish weren't really true.

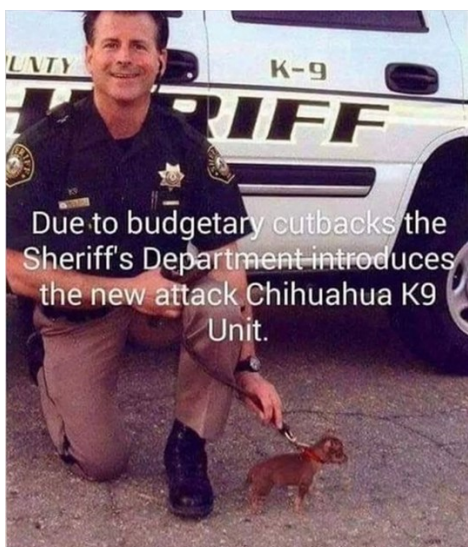

The man who invented pop-up ads has apologized to the world for creating one of the Internet's most hated forms of advertising !

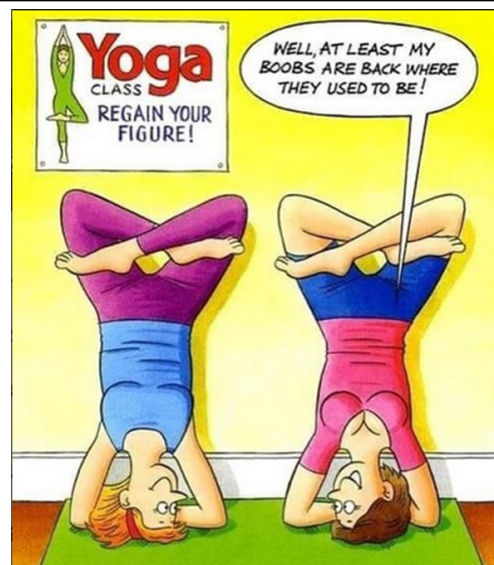

The inventor of the Super Soaker squirt gun, one of the most popular toys in the world, was a NASA scientist who also helped develop the Stealth Bomber and the Galileo mission to Jupiter. His name is Lonnie G. Johnson.

"Macaroni" used to be a slang term in the 1700s to describe a fashionable man who spoke and dressed outlandishly in an effeminate manner. This coined the mocking phrase, "... stuck a feather in his hat and called it macaroni."

Due to budgetary cutbacks the Sheriff's Department introduces the new attack Chihuahua K9 Unit.

Nine Important Facts to Remember as We Grow Older

- #9 Death is the number 1 killer in the world.
- #8 Life is sexually transmitted.
- #7 Good health is merely the slowest possible rate at which one can die.
- #6 Men have two motivations: hunger and hanky-panky, and they can't tell them apart. If you see a gleam in his eyes, make him a sandwich.
- #5 Give a person a fish and you feed them for a day. Teach a person to use the Internet and they won't bother you for weeks, months, maybe years.
- #4 Health nuts are going to feel stupid someday, lying in the hospital, dying of nothing.
- #3 All of us could take a lesson from the weather. It pays no attention to criticism.
- #2 In the '60s, people took LSD to make the world weird. Now the world is weird, and people take Prozac to make it normal.
- #1 Life is like a jar of jalapeno peppers. What you do today may be a burning issue tomorrow.

The Old Couple

The husband leans over and asks his wife, "Do you remember the first time we had sex together over fifty years ago? We went behind the village tavern where you leaned against the back fence and I made love to you."

Yes, she says, "I remember it well."

OK, he says, "How about taking a stroll around there again and we can do it for old time's sake?"

"Oh Jim, you old devil, that sounds like a crazy, but good idea!"

A police officer sitting in the next booth heard their conversation and, having a chuckle to himself, he thinks to himself, I've got to see these two old-timers having sex against a fence. I'll just keep an eye on them so there's no trouble. So, he follows them.

The elderly couple walks haltingly along, leaning on each other for support aided by walking sticks. Finally, they get to the back of the tavern and make their way to the fence. The old lady lifts her skirt and the old man drops his trousers. As she leans against the fence, the old man moves in.. Then suddenly they erupt into the most furious sex that the policeman has ever seen. This goes on for about ten minutes while both are making loud noises and moaning and screaming. Finally, they both collapse, panting on the ground.

The policeman is amazed. He thinks he has learned something about life and old age that he didn't know.

After about half an hour of lying on the ground recovering, the old couple struggle to their feet and put their clothes back on. The policeman, is still watching and thinks to himself, this is truly amazing, I've got to ask them what their secret is.

So, as the couple passes, he says to them, "Excuse me, but that was something else. You must've had a fantastic sex life together. Is there some sort of secret to this?"

Shaking, the old man is barely able to reply; "Fifty years ago, that wasn't an electric fence."

THE ACTIVE MEMBER

Are you an active member? The kind that would be missed, or are you just contented that your name is on the list. Do you attend the meetings and mingle with the flock, or do you stay home and criticize and knock? Do you take an active part to help the work along, or are you satisfied to be the kind that "just belong?". Do you ever go to visit a member who is sick, or leave the work to just a few and talk about the clique? There's quite a program scheduled that I'm sure you've heard about. And we'll appreciate it if you'll come and help us out. So come to the meetings often and help us with work and hearts. Don't be just a member, but take an active part. Think this over member:

You know right from wrong.

Are you an ACTIVE member or do YOU just belong?

You think you're so smart? What's the fourth peddle for?

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIPS

In accordance with the revised CCCT By-Laws, Associate Memberships are available to anyone who lives in excess of 75 miles one way from the City of Tucson. Annual dues shall be 60% of the full dues established by the membership
