INTERESTING SKETCH OF A FORMER CITIZEN

HOW REV. ISAAH WELCH ROSE FROM OBSCURITY.

BORN IN DARKEST SLAVERY

Was Brought to Bellefonte in Infancy and Worked on Farm—Longed For Education and Secured It—Now a Minister of the Gospel.

Bellefonte, Pa., Nov. 30, 1910. Editor Democrat:—Please allow me space in your widely circulated paper, to make brief mention of the early life in Bellefonte of our distinguished friend, Rev. Dr. I. H. Welch, who is now pastor of a large congregation in the city of Chattanooga, Tenn. Rev. Welch arrived in Bellefonte on Friday 25 inst., for the first time, after a lapse of 30 years. We received him with gladness and were heartily sorry when the time came for him to leave for his home. This distinguished gentleman was born on the eastern shore of Maryland, in 1845, and was brought to Bellefonte by his parents in infancy, who made their escape from slavery, with two children, William deceased and Isalah; and were concealed by the family of Mr. William A. Thomas, Sr., deceased. In boyhood, Isalah was house boy in the family of Hon. Andrew G. Curtin, deceased, and he remained with the family quite awhile. His father moved onto the farm of Hon. H. N. McAllister, where he remained several years and acquired a practical knowledge of farming. Isalah feeling anxious to educate himself for future usefulness, his father and Mr. McAllister reluctantly consented to his going. In the fall of 1861 he left the farm and went to Willberforce University, Ohio. His father made Bishop D. A. Payne his guardian. He was admitted to the institution and finding he did not have means to meet expenses, he obtained a job of corn shucking from which he realized enough money to pay his tuition and purchase books. He had been assured aid by Mr. McAllister in case of absolute need. Before the school term ended, his means were exhausted, he then informed Mr. McAllister of his condition, who, with other gentlemen of Bellefonte, promptly assisted him through his first year in school. He worked on a farm during vacation and accumulated means to meet his expenses during the second year. His patriotism prompted him to the nation's call for colored troops, and he enlisted in the 54th Massachusetts Volunteers in 1863, and went to Boston, but was transferred to the 55th Massachusetts Volunteers in which he served two years and five months. He was in the storming of Fort Wagner and the capture of Charleston, S. C. He was wounded twice in engagements in South Carolina. During that time he has saved much of his money. He was mustered out of the service in 1865, at which time he visited his parents in Bellefonte, and then returned to Willberforce, resumed his studies and continued till he finished his course in 1870. He then went to Alabama and engaged in church and public school work for several years. Was appointed force, resumed his studies and continued till he finished his course in 1870. He then went to Alabama and engaged in church and public school work for several years. Was appointed clerk of customs in Pensacola, Florida. From there he went to Kentucky and founded Wayman Institute purchasing ground and erected buildings for school purposes, and was President of the institution for eight years and then resigned. But after two years was re-elected and served two years more, and resigned again to return to the pastorate, serving alternately as pastor and Presiding Elder.

 He has written treatises on the origin and history of the A. M. E. church approved by many scholars of the race.
 Rev. Welch is now entering upon his fourth year's service in Warren chapel at Chatanooga. On learning of the destruction of the A. M. E. church, in February last, he kindly sent us a donation through Gen. James A.
 Beaver, not knowing any of his former acquaintances were living. After he had been informed by Gen. Beaver, that there were still some living here who knew him; he sent the second donation which I received and for which we feel very grateful. Rev. Welch has expressed his great surprise at the material growth and fine appearance of his old home of 45 years ago. He left last week for Chatanooga. We bid him "God Speed," hoping it may be our pleasure to see him again some time during next summer.
 Respectfully,
 Wm Mills, Sr.
