How it's Possible:

The Ingredients of Laffy Taffy consist of salt, artificial flavoring, soy lecithin, malic acid, hydrogenated cottonseed oil, diglycerides, and monoglycerides. Laffy Taffy is made by combining the ingredients into a goo and stretching it until it becomes aerated. In other words, until the taffy inflates and oxygenises. In this process, lots of different artificial flavorings and colorings are introduced. It is then shaped from thick and square to flat and rectangular. You can also get bags of mini Laffy Taffys. There are also Laffy Taffy Ropes and Laff Bites. There are many different kinds of flavors like Banana, Cherry, Grape, Sour Apple, Blue Raspberry, Strawberry Watermelon, Sparkle Cherry, and more. Overall this candy is so good because it's my favorite treat, and there's even jokes that appear on every wrapper.

That's Inspirational: Inspiration

When I was four years old, I saw a promo for my first Warner Bros. movie, The Powerpuff Girls movie. I was a big fan of the show, and I wanted to see the movie. My grandparents knew the Powerpuffgirls were my sister and I personal heroines. There were no tantrums, my grandparents just knew I had to see it. Therefore they took me to see the movie. The film itself was inspirational. I was amazed by the way the film was drawn out, and seeing Townsville's superheroes on the big screen was one of the best things that ever happened to me before starting kindergarten. After I saw the movie that day, I secretly knew what I wanted to do with my life: be a cartoonist.

That's Incredible!

Joey Chestnut downed 62 hot dogs with buns winning the 2023 Nathan's hotdog eating contest. Unfortunately he was not able to beat his own record of 76 hot dogs. Due to heavy jaw exercises he is able to chew at a much higher level than normal people. Due to this, he is able to consume one hot dog every ten seconds. The 2023 contest marks his 15th win overall in a contest he has been competing in since 2006.

Monthly Horoscope For August

August may be a time of rest for some, and for others a temporary calmness before the storm. The future will bring inspiration, as well as interest. Keep your outlook positive. Our attitudes towards our tasks ahead is what matters. In mid august, there is likely to be a sort of transitional period with a flow of events. Significant encounters in your business and personal relationships may happen. Things around us will begin to feel more peaceful and quiet and they will flow in a positive direction. This month we await inevitable changes like the change of seasons.

Pet of the Month!

The Town of North Hempstead Animal Shelter

Willie is a 1 year old black lab mix that came to us from an overcrowded shelter in Georgia through TSC's rescue program. Willie has a typical lab personality- goofy, fun loving, and affectionate! Unfortunately, whoever was Willie's previous owner did not do much training with him. He needs a family to continue teaching his commands as well as teaching him that not everyone wants to be jumped on for a hug! Willie gets along with everyone he meets, dogs and humans alike, and would make a great companion to any household that is dedicated to keep working with him.
