Words of Wisdom

"If you have a dream, don't wait. Act"- Kingdom Hearts

This is talking about taking time for yourself in life .To try to get rid of the bad things happening in life, we can try to make everything better sometimes by looking at the stars. This can help us to get ideas about what we want to be talking about. This quote can help anyone if they see this in a newspaper or on tv when u turn it on. This quote can help people to work on new ideas and can help someone become as wise as an owl.

Tara W.

"Listen, people like me and you, we're different. We're original thinkers, intrepid outliers in this vast cesspool of adolescence. We don't need these inane rites of passage to validate who we are." - Wednesday Show

This quote shows people how to come together like a family. Just be yourself and everything will be better than the first The sun always shines or rain comes down but that's ok. Don't let your guard down and life will be better. Being different can be challenging but we can try new things. It seems odd but we can still be friends when we try to know that person's questions to get information about themselves.

Short Story Activity

Once upon a time, there were three children that were good. They lived in the city and they see the empire state building and go to a restaurant. They got chicken tenders, french fries, and ketchup. For dessert, they got chocolate ice cream. They went home and sat down and relaxed. The next day they went to outer space and flew next to the stars and the planets. They see spaceships and astronauts on earth. They met an alien named Star Wars. The aliens are funny. They look green and colorful and have two eyes. I met an alien named Sellick. He had yellow curly hair. The flags stand up on the moon. The flag blows in the wind. An alien was playing the piano and singing enchanted. They were tapping their feet. They go back to the city on the rocket ship. They go to the music concert called the Christmas Spectacular. They dance at the concert. They sing to the pianos. Then the aliens came to the city and they went to Starbucks and got an iced coffee. They said goodbye to the aliens and went home to sleep. The end

Pet Of The Month - Moose

Our pet of the month is Moose. Moose is a 6-7 year old Rottweiler surrendered by his owner who said he could not afford to care for him anymore. At over 100 pounds, Moose lives up to his name and is a big, goofy, mushy boy- he thinks he's 10 pounds instead of 100 and likes to try to sit in your lap.

Moose, like most Rottweilers develop a bit later in life, does have confirmed hip dysplasia. However, at this point it is not slowing him down just yet. Moose is seeking a home with older children and large dog experience.

If you are interested in learning more about Moose, please call the Town of North Hempstead Animal Shelter at 516-869-6311 or email animalshelter@northhempsteadny.gov to request an adoption application.

Corpse Bride Movie Review

Nicholas P.

Director, Tim Burton nurtures his love for stop-motion animation with this characteristically dark, but loose musical adaptation of a story from old folklore. In the story the film is based on, they soon learn that the living cannot marry the dead, and the bride collapses into dust. Good thing Corpse Bride has a happy ending. This movie and Charlie and the Chocolate Factory were made at the same time. This was a challenge for Burton. Johnny Depp, Christopher Lee, Deep Roy, and Hilda Brum-Carter worked on both films. Stop motion was now more improved from the time of "The Nightmare Before Christmas". It took a year to make Corpse bride, while it took 3 years to make The Nightmare Before Christmas. This is a foray into a family-friendly happy film that tells the story of Victor Van Dort, a soon-to-be groom to Victoria Everglot, who ends up in a grave misunderstanding when he gets cold feet and unwittingly ends up marrying a dead woman, Emily. "With this hand, I will lift your sorrows. Your cup shall never empty, for I will be your wine. With this candle, I will light your way in darkness. With this ring, I ask you to be mine." Despite the morbid themes, This is one of Tim Burton's best movies.

Groundhog Day

By Julia S.

Groundhog Day is always on February 2nd each and every year. If the groundhog sees his shadow, we have 6 more weeks of Winter. The first Groundhog Day was started in 1886 by a newspaper editor Clymer Freas. Studies have proven no strong correlation between a groundhog spotting its own shadow and the arrival of Spring. The groundhog that is known as the most famous for predicting the weather is Punxsutaway Phil. There is also supposedly only one Phil and any other groundhogs who attempt to do what he does are imposters. If Phil the groundhog can't see his shadow, it means there will be an early spring.
