Artist Spotlight

The artist of the month for September is Sherri. She can be seen here proudly displaying her work on a watercolor project. Sherri enjoyed making her dream house come to life. We love this colorful neighborhood landscape.

I watch the clouds go sailing
I watch the clock and sun.
Oh, I watch myself, depending on,
September when it comes.

My choice for the words of wisdom for September is from the song "September When it Comes" by Rosanne and Johnny Cash

This song speaks to me as it can show that September is when many changes happen and at any time in your life.

Discovery by Hudson

By Cameron

If you are like me, then you probably love going out to experience all that New York City has to offer. However, it may surprise you to learn that before any of us got to enjoy the shining lights of Broadway, the isle of Manhattan was first discovered by Henry Hudson on September 4, 1609. Henry Hudson was an English sea explorer and navigator. The Hudson River is even named after him. Hudson made two attempts on behalf of English merchants to find the rumored northeast passage to present-day China using a route above the Arctic Circle in 1607 or 1608. However, they were unsuccessful. He finally discovered New York in 1609. He sailed up the Hudson River and thereby laid the foundation for Dutch colonization of the region. Hudson discovered The Hudson Strait and the immense Hudson Bay on his final expedition while still searching for the Northwest Passage.

Hudson wasn't the first person to set foot on the isle of Manhattan. The area that is now Manhattan was long inhabited by the Lenape people. The groups of culturally and linguistically identical Native Americans in the region traditionally spoke an Algonquian language now referred to as Unami. The next time you visit Manhattan and are taking a stroll along the Hudson River, remember that Henry Hudson arrived on that same river all the way back in September 1609!

In a Barbie World

By Josh

The Barbie movie was incredible. Lots of people were wearing pink to the movies to go see it like a new thing where we dress up to see movies. It's a new trend. The Movie itself was really good with a great cast of actors like Maragort Robbie, Ryan Gosling, Will Ferrell and Simu Liu and much more. The music was also good dance the night away by DuLipa. It's the big dance scene in the movie where the barbies and kens are having a party. Pink by Lizzo Barbie when Barbie starts her day in the morning. Speed Drive by Chari XCX This part of the movie where Barbie runs away from Mattel headquarters I find this scene very entertaining to watch. What I really found interesting is that Barbie was developing human traits and went to the real world to find the person who played with her. Barbie learned that the real world is not as easy as it seems where in Barbie land everything is perfect and happy all the time. I felt so bad for Barbie when Barbie lost everything. It was a pretty sad scene but she had her friends to help her take back the land. It surprised me when she wanted to become a real life human and get a real job and work. I give the movie a 9 out of 10. It was that good and I would see it again.
