The Nicholas Center delivers services to achieve specific IEP goals and assist School Districts in delivering State and Federal mandated services.

Go Beyond the Basics

The Nicholas Center's mission is to help individuals with Autism lead full and productive lives in the community.

Our year-round programs offer consistent and meaningful work training and work-readiness skills.

The Nicholas Center's (TNC) experience includes:

- ▶ On-site vocational training at work settings
- ▶ Structured class-room based instruction
- ▶ Person-centered career exploration & planning
- ▶ Work-related social & communication skills-training
- ▶ Small group ratios
- ▶ Knowledgeable Instructors in the unique needs of individuals with Autism

\ Rates begin at: $65/hour per student. Activities/experiences are limited to location. Inquire for more details.*

Ready. Set. Work. | Invest in your student's journey.

At TNC, our innovative program and experiences enable participants to learn, retain and maintain skills needed for a successful transition to post-school work and life.

Pre-Vocational experiences include:

- ▶ Custom Apparel Decoration - screen printing and embroidery
- ▶ Culinary Arts - baking, packaging, and custom gifts
- ▶ Laundering - wash, fold, steam, and customer interface
- ▶ Tech & Media - graphic design, writing, editing, media and newsletters
- ▶ Retail, Warehouse & Fulfilment - pick/pack, inventory, shipping and customer interface

\ New vocational opportunities launching soon.*

Summer Program: 6-week program offering skills maintenance, safe community navigation, vocational training at work settings and community-based opportunities.

\ Summer rates start at $45/hour per student.*

“The Nicholas Center model is far and away the most vibrant, successful, exciting program we’ve seen. The staff is professional, enthusiastic, and proactively well-trained, and excellent at differentiating instruction to meet each individual’s needs.”
