You will click on General Public and get a screen that looks like this

GENERAL PUBLIC

By going directly through Fieldprint, any U.S. citizen or permanent resident alien can request their own FBI National Criminal Records History Report as authorized under 28 CFR 16. Simply schedule an appointment online at fieldprintfbi.com, pay the designated fee and have your fingerprints collected at one of our more than 1,200 collection site locations. As soon as your fingerprints are captured, Fieldprint will submit them directly to the FBI for processing. Once the search results are received by Fieldprint – usually in less than 24 hours – they are delivered to you electronically.

Request your own FBI National Criminal Records History Report

fieldprintusa.com

Fieldprint is authorized through the U.S. Department of Justice Order 556-73 Title 28 CFR 16 to allow U.S. citizens and permanent resident aliens the ability to request their own FBI National Criminal Records History Report. Individuals typically make these requests for personal review, to challenge the information on record, to satisfy a requirement for adopting a child in the United States or internationally, or to satisfy a requirement to live, work or travel in a foreign country (e.g., police certificate, letter of good conduct, Identity History Summary check, etc.).
