31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Bulletin for November 3, 2019

The Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost.

~ Luke 19:10

From Father Rich

November is the Month of the Dead and it is also the last weeks of the liturgical year. A new church year starts on the First Sunday of Advent. But the weeks before that bring into clearer focus the universal nature of salvation and the salvation won for all people through the love of God poured out in Christ Jesus. Last Thursday’s celebration of Halloween (“Eve of All Hallows/Holy”) developed as a way to honor the memories of all the faithful who had died in the love and grace of the Lord. As these holy women and men were honored, people became more aware of what we might call our “ordinary” or “everyday” saints whom we also remember. These often include members of our families, our neighbors and fellow parishioners, and our co-workers. There are so many who have showed by their lives how active was their faith. And what better way to honor them than by dressing as they might have dressed. Of course, over time this became much more commercialized and the definition of saints expanded to include heroes—real or fictional—who also inspire us by their lives.

During this month, don’t hesitate to call to mind your own heroes, those who have inspired you and shown you the way. Whether they are in the official litany of the saints, or simply in the litany of our minds and hearts, they all serve to help us recognize God’s love for us which always leads to salvation.

In two weeks, we will celebrate our parish Feast Day honoring St. Gertrude the Great. As we have done for the past few years, we will use this celebration to celebrate, as well the Anointing of the Sick. Each year, I encourage every parishioner to extend an invitation to anyone ailing in your family or down the street to join us in this celebration. The Anointing of the Sick is for anyone suffering from any serious illness or any chronic condition which limits their ability to live a full and vital life. This can be a physical, spiritual, mental or emotional condition. This sacrament reminds us that we are embodied spirits and the fullness of who we are can be compromised for so many reasons. In this sacrament, we are promised the healing grace of God’s love—that includes the forgiveness of our sins. Each time we are anointed, all our sins are forgiven. As we prepare for this celebration in two weeks, please keep in your prayers in a special way all those who are ailing for any reason and ask for God’s mercy to be present to them directly and through all those they encounter.

Don’t forget to mark your calendars for the other events on our Feast Day weekend—the International Dinner on Friday, November 15, the All Are Welcome Concert on Saturday, November 16. Our episcopal vicar, Bishop Mark Bartosic, will be here to celebrate the 5:00 pm Mass on Saturday, November 16. It’s going to be a great Feast Day weekend!

It is not too late to nominate fellow parishioners for the Parish Service Awards which will be presented at our Thanksgiving Day Mass. The form for nominations is below. Please complete it and drop it in the collection basket or return it to the Rectory.

Growing in Faith

I love the visual of Zacchaeus climbing a tree to check out Jesus and what he has to say. It just feels super encouraging and loving the way Jesus seeks Zacchaeus out - up there in his "hiding place".

I also enjoy hiding out. For better or for worse, it is especially something I resort to when I am feeling fear, overwhelm, or upset. (It's kind of nice that my neighbors know this. Jackie Blake likes to say I pull a "Houdini".)

This reading really speaks to me in the huge hope it offers: that an encounter, such as Jesus' with Zacchaeus, can bring a shift in an instant. Many times, I have retreated and orchestrated some unhelpful replaying of my poor choices from the day or from my life. However, when I'm able to remember to ask for help from God in those humbling hiding moments, I feel little reminders that things are always working out somehow.

Our sons, Michael and George, have been my greatest examples in this respect. I see that when they feel overloaded, they seek out alone time and subsequently recover quite quickly. I am not sure what kinds of intentional or unintentional assistance they seek with Jesus, but it sure seems to work for them. So, if you see one of us Hanafees perched in a tree here in Edgewater...

Anointing of the Sick: We will offer the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick at all Masses.

Anointing of the Sick

On the weekend of November 15-17, we will be celebrating our Parish Feast Day.

We will celebrate the Anointing of the Sick at all the Masses that weekend. This sacrament is for anyone suffering from any illness or condition, temporary or chronic, and even for those who simply are feeling the effects of aging. The sacrament is one of the oldest rituals in our Christian tradition.

In the earliest days of the Church, some members of the community were dismissed from the celebration of the Eucharist before mass was finished in order to bring the Eucharist and the blessed oil to those unable to attend because of some illness or infirmity.

The Anointing has always been understood to be about comfort and healing of both body and spirit, and so includes every kind of distress—physical, mental, emotional, psychological, and spiritual. It is also this comprehensive understanding that led those same early Christians to the conclusion that whenever anyone receives the Anointing of the Sick, all their sins are forgiven. And that remains true to this day! (From the Epistle of James, 5:14-15: 14 “Is anyone among you sick? He should summon the presbyters of the church, and they should pray over him and anoint [him] with oil in the name of the Lord, and the prayer of faith will save the sick person, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed any sins, he will be forgiven.”)

The anointing takes place right after the homily and is in two parts. In the first part, there is a prayer for those to be anointed. Then those who wish to receive the sacrament come forward for the imposition of hands which signifies the calling down of the Holy Spirit. In the second part, a Prayer of Thanksgiving is prayed over the Holy Oil, and then those to be anointed come forward a second time when the priest will anoint their forehead and the palms of their hands. Once everyone is anointed, there is a Prayer of Thanksgiving and then mass continues as usual.

If you know anyone in your family or in the community who might want to receive the Anointing of the Sick, please invite them to our 5:00 pm Mass on Saturday, November 16 or the 8:00 am or 10:30 am Masses on Sunday, November 17.

- Call members of Congress to express that we need to be a welcoming country and uphold the rights of immigrants and refugees
- Stay informed, see www.immigrantjustice.org
- Talk with members of your community
- Educate yourself—use NIJC’s Ambassador Program Toolkit available at <https://www.immigrantjustice.org/ambassadortoolkit>
- Provide financial support to groups providing immigration legal services to low-income individuals
