E-Bulletin for theSixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 13, 2022

From Fr. Rich

Two weekends ago, six engaged couples participated in one of our parish-based Pre-Cana programs to assist them in preparing for life as married couples. Also recently, the young people preparing for the reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation in March participated in a retreat day, together exploring the gift of the Holy Spirit in their lives.

Some of our volunteers who help visit the sick and homebound have been working to bring their VIRTUS training up to the current requirement. And every week NCA is assisted by members of the Archdiocesan School Office in the many important nuances of COVID protocols and other, more traditional aspects of education. The Peace & Justice Committee has been working to get ready for the Lenten season and some parishioners are working with the jail ministry through Kolbe House.

I mention all these different activities and ministries because all of them are partially made possible by some of the different services/offices of the Archdiocese of Chicago of which we as a parish are members. The Archdiocese has a broader view and a much greater outreach than St. Gertrude or any individual parish. This includes our annual participation in the outreach of Catholic Relief Services to people in crisis throughout the world.

This weekend, we begin the annual three-weekend presentation for the Annual Catholic Appeal. It is important to be aware that we are always part of the universal church, not just our own small Christian community looking inward. As members of the larger church, it is fulfilling one of our gospel imperatives to look beyond ourselves to the greater world and its needs.

The Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) makes possible the training and facilitating of so many ministries and activities that no one parish could sustain by itself. Things such as training our facilitator couples for the parish-based Pre Cana program; assisting our young people throughout the Archdiocese with their sacramental preparation; keeping all our children safe through the VIRTUS program, Protecting God's Children; providing help and direction for our Catholic schools and Religious Education programs; offering guidance and resources for peace and justice initiatives, as well as outreach to all those who, as Pope Francis is always reminding us, are living on the periphery.

Anyone who has contributed to the ACA in the past should have received information on this year's Appeal. There is also information available in church this weekend.

Next weekend, we will listen to a recorded homily by Cardinal Cupich, and then we will walk through the commitment process, using the forms that will be available in all the pews. On the third and final weekend, we will also direct anyone who has not yet made a pledge to the Appeal how to do so.

Like you, I received requests from so many organizations doing good work, it is difficult to decide where to give. I encourage you to consider a gift to the ACA. It is not only good for the ongoing ministries and services here at St. Gertrude, it is also a way for us to extend out Christian compassion to those most in need here in our own Archdiocese as well as reaching out to those in need throughout the world. Please consider your gift to the ACA this year.

Thank you.

~ Fr. Rich

Growing in Faith

In today's Gospel, we hear the familiar words of the Beatitudes which appear in both Luke and Matthew. Unlike Matthew's Sermon on the Mount, Luke's version is often called the Sermon on the Plain. Jesus is "on the level" with his disciples. Jesus "raises his eyes toward his disciples" before speaking, not toward heaven as I mistakenly assumed. What must it have felt like to have that eye contact with Jesus?

Again, I incorrectly expected to read "blessed are THE poor...THE meek...THE merciful..." as it in Matthew's version. But no, we are in Luke, who writes "Blessed are YOU who are poor...Blessed are YOU who are hungry...". There's an immediacy and directness to Jesus' words. And just as I'm feeling comforted, I read "woe to YOU who are rich...woe to YOU who are filled...woe to YOU who laugh now...". My pantry is overflowing with food. I love to laugh more than anything...which "side" am I on?

I don't want to sanitize or spiritualize any of the power of this Gospel. Jesus is deeply concerned with the economics of injustice and the societal sins of exclusion and oppression. I imagine it was a mixed crowd of "haves" and "have nots" on the plain that day, perhaps not unlike our city and country today. Out of his radical love for all of us, Jesus meets us where we are, "levels" with us. We are all hungry for hope and healing. The Beatitudes guide us to follow Jesus' path of compassion and love.

Midwest Workers Association Super Bowl Sunday Tamale Benefit - Pick Up Your Orders This Weekend in the Back of Church

The Midwest Workers Association (MWA) will be in the back of church this Saturday, February 12 in the evening and Sunday, February 13 after Mass to distribute orders for their Super Bowl Sunday Tamale Benefit.

If you are interested in tamales and did not place an order, please check with a MWA volunteer to see if they have extra. The suggested donations for the homemade tamales are $10 for a half dozen and $20 for a dozen. There are three kinds to choose from and they come in half-dozen bags of a kind. Choices include chicken in a green sauce, vegetarian "queso y rajas" (cheese & jalapeno), and vegan black bean & cactus.

This benefit generates critical support for MWA's Winter Survival Campaign. The campaign includes winter door-to-door membership canvasses, utility bill advocacy (to stop shutoffs and restore service for members), warm coat & blanket distributions, check-in calls to members and more.

The North Side Community Mask Drive is a parent- and-community driven effort to ensure that the PPE needs of schools and communities are met.

We are accepting donations of:

- ▶ Child-sized N95/KN95/KF94
- ▶ Child-sized surgical masks
- ▶ Cleaning supplies (wipes and hand sanitizer)

well as the Edgewater Community Religious Association (ECRA), which includes St. Gertrude parish.

The group is collecting:

- Child-size surgical masks
- Clorox/disinfecting wipes
- Hand sanitizer

Items can be dropped off in a marked bin at Edge of Sweetness, 6034 N. Broadway, or shipped to/dropped off at Church of Atonement, 5749 N. Kenmore.

Please email NSCommunityMasks@gmail.com with any questions or if you would like to help amplify, join our efforts, or receive supplies.

Deposit Due to Take Part in the Summer Mission Trip to Lake Traverse, South Dakota

The youth group's Summer Mission Trip is scheduled for July 17-22. The group will travel to Lake Traverse, South Dakota. All teens in grades 7-12 who attend parish youth group meetings regularly are welcome to take part in this jam-packed week of service, friendship, and fun! Space is limited.

The cost is $379 per person, not including transportation. A nonrefundable $50 deposit is due by Sunday, February 13, 2022. A nonrefundable half payment of $100 is due by Monday, February 28. The final payment deadline date will be shared in the future. We are organizing some fundraising events to offset these expenses.

Please consider two factors when deciding about the Mission Trip - the pandemic is likely to still be ongoing in July and we are traveling to and from South Dakota in a passenger van. (A close space considering the pandemic).

For more information about the mission trip, please visit the Lake Traverse Youth Mission Trip | YouthWorks website. If you have any questions, please email me at eescamilla@stgertrudechicago.org.

Palms Up for Lent: Additional Lenten Opportunities

With Lent quickly approaching (Ash Wednesday is March 2), the Peace and Justice Ministry invites everyone to participate in social justice focused Lenten devotions that are being offered. As mentioned in previous bulletins, we will be offering Stations of the Cross on Fridays at 6:30 pm in addition to the traditional 3:00 pm. The Almoner's program of McDonald's gift card distribution will be offered again this year.

This week, we are highlighting another option. St. Gertrude's will be offering small prayer and learning groups focused on anti racism. The groups will be using The Spiritual Works of Racial Justice, written by Patrick Saint Jean, S.J. His work offers reflections on how taking an anti-racism position is not an optional aspect of a spiritual life, but rather it is essential to becoming all that God calls us to be. This will be an opportunity to come together in reflection and prayer using this resource. The book is available for purchase at the Rectory office as well as in the back of church this weekend after Masses for $15.

It's not too late to sign up and be part of one of these groups, which will be hosted both in the morning and the evening! Or if you are part of an ongoing group that would be interested in exploring this topic during Lent, or willing to be a group leader, please let us know! Email Maria Garcia at the Rectory office at stgertrude1420@stgertrudechicago.org or Father Mike at mgabriel@stgertrudechicago.org.
