From Father Rich

Our reopening for public Masses went very well last weekend -- thanks to the many volunteers who have done such great ministry in setting up before each service, welcomed every parishioner, and went through the health and safety protocols, and the clean-up team who cleaned every pew surface and the bathroom after each service.

We are still in need of volunteers as we go forward. This is going to become more critical as weeks go on so we don't start burning out the volunteers who have been doing so much already. Please consider volunteering for these new ministries. From now on, having gone through our first weekend successfully, we can now accommodate up to 150 at each Mass or service.

Bulletin for the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

7/5

“When is.....?” Like everyone else, all of us in the Rectory office are still wondering when there might be more clarity about when certain things will be allowed to resume. Then, each time we think we have a clearer answer, we see a surge in COVID-19 cases in some parts of the country, fear a surge here in Illinois, and continue to wonder, “When is.....?”

Recently, we received word that meetings of up to 50 people could resume. But once you read the protocols on how these meetings could take place, it is clear -- unless you have a very large outdoor space with great acoustics, etc. -- meetings with 50 people really aren't yet resuming. We've been dealing with a similar situation with the members of the staff. In theory, they might be able to return for the parts of their job that require them to be here in the offices. But mostly they will continue to be working from home.

This is also the situation with any members of your household who are in school. It now seems most schools are planning on re-opening for the fall term. But no one yet seems clear exactly what that will mean. In some cases, we hear of schools that will do some in-classroom teaching with another portion being done electronically, and others trying to do all in-person teaching and some doing all-e-learning.

I think it is safe to say until there is either a very effective medicine(s) to treat the virus, and/or until we have an effective vaccine, we will all be living with this kind of uncertainty. Depending on which experts you listen to, even if there is an effective vaccine ready by early January, it may take many months for the production of enough of the vaccine to change our behaviors and we return to something like we were used to.

Which is a long way to get to this: we really have to keep working on our patience and our tolerance! And it is especially important to remember that none of us is being singled out for particular punishment in all this. We are all in the same boat! So please practice kindness, understanding, tolerance, and patience. Practice love!

As we settle into this “new normal”, please continue to remember all those who are in need of special help -- whether it is food, financial assistance, housing help, employment aid, medical care, and any other kind of help a fellow human being may be deprived of at this time. In a special way, please be aware of how many people of color and those without documents are much more vulnerable in times like these. Special contributions to Catholic Charities, Care for Real, our Refugee Committee, any of the Black Lives Matter groups, our Archdiocesan immigration ministries -- all of these could use additional assistance to continue their efforts.

I hope everyone has a great week! It is summertime! Enjoy it in whatever new and wonderful ways you have figured out work for you and those you love.

What to Expect and Do When Coming Back to Church

Readings for Sunday, July 5

Reading 1: Zec 9:9–10

Thus says the LORD:

Rejoice heartily, O daughter Zion,
shout for joy, O daughter Jerusalem!
See, your king shall come to you;
a just savior is he,

mEEK, and riding on an ass,
on a colt, the foal of an ass.
He shall banish the chariot from Ephraim,
and the horse from Jerusalem;
the warrior's bow shall be banished,
and he shall proclaim peace to the nations.
His dominion shall be from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 145:1–2, 8–9, 10–11, 13–14

R. (cf. 1) I will praise your name forever, my king and my God.

I will extol you, O my God and King,
and I will bless your name forever and ever.

Every day will I bless you,
and I will praise your name forever and ever.

R. I will praise your name forever, my king and my God.

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness.

The LORD is good to all and compassionate toward all his works.

R. I will praise your name forever, my king and my God.

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD,
and let your faithful ones bless you.

Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might.

R. I will praise your name forever, my king and my God.

The LORD is faithful in all his words and holy in all his works.

The LORD lifts up all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.

R. I will praise your name forever, my king and my God.

Reading 2: Rom 8:9, 11–13

Brothers and sisters: You are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit that dwells in you. Consequently, brothers and sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh, you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

Gospel: Mt 11:25–30

At that time Jesus exclaimed: “I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones. Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”

Growing in Faith: Come to Me

*“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened,
and I will give you rest.*

*Take my yoke upon you and learn from me,
for I am meek and humble of heart;
and you will find rest for yourselves.*

For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.” (Matthew 11:28-30)

If you, like me, are a Boomer who grew up in the midst of the post-Vatican II explosion of folk song-style church music, you most likely immediately hear the melody of Gregory Norbert’s Come to Me folk song as soon as a lector proclaims this passage from Matthew.

The composer, at that time a member of the Benedictine Weston Priory, first published this song in 1971. What I didn't realize then is something I have recently learned from watching re-runs of the TV series, Glee. This song is really a mashup, a mix of two songs. Norbert juxtaposes the refrain from today's Matthew passage, with verses based on Psalm 23. And I'm glad that he did. Because as I re-read this Matthean passage in the light of today's pandemic and the pressing issues around racist policies and practices that the Black Lives Matter movement has spotlighted, I am appalled.

Thinking about God putting yokes on any of us is problematic. Has God burdened us with the yoke of coronavirus and racism? If so, I want another God. The first verses of Norbert's Psalm 23 paraphrase, though, can temper this alarming vision of such a cruel God: "You are my shepherd I shall never be in need. Fresh and green are the meadows where you give me rest. Beside peaceful waters, you restore my true self. There you lead me to walk in the path of new life."

May the shepherding God of mercy remove all yokes from today's heavily burdened and truly bring them new life.

Parishioner Guidelines for Attending Mass in Church

The church is now open Monday through Saturday for 7:30 am Mass. Weekend Masses are 5:00 pm on Saturdays and 8:00 am and 10:30 am on Sundays.

Here are some pointers everyone will need to be aware of as we return:

- For all church activities, including services/Masses, the only entrance will be the Granville (handicap access) door.
- Everyone will need a reservation for coming into church. Sign up for weekday Masses HERE and weekend Masses HERE or you can call the Rectory office at 773.764.3621.

- Registrations must be entered at least by 3:00 pm the day before the weekday service/Mass you plan to attend. Registration for weekend Masses must be entered by 3:00 pm on Saturday.
- If your name does not appear on the registration list, you will be asked to wait outside. If fewer than 50 people are in attendance at the beginning of the service, you will be admitted.
- Everyone must wear a mask. If you do not have a mask when you arrive, one will be provided. (Only exceptions are for medical conditions.)
- Leave home early enough to allow for the check-in procedure.
- You must not exhibit any signs of COVID-19 related illness (fever of 100.4 degrees or above, cough, shortness of breath, sore throat, chest tightness, extreme fatigue, loss of sense of taste or smell, diarrhea, muscle aches, or headaches) or had exposure to anyone with these symptoms.
- Once you are admitted, your temperature will be taken with a non-touch electronic thermometer and you will have your hands sanitized. Then you will be checked in and an usher or greeter will take you to a seat. (Those living in the same households can sit together.) Everyone in church is expected to maintain safe-distancing protocols by observing the markings on the floor and in the pews which give directions for spacing and traffic flow.
- Weekend Masses take place on Saturday at 5:00 pm and at 8:00 am and 10:30 am on Sunday. Once we are confident we have our protocols down and things are operating smoothly, we can have from 15-20% of our capacity at any Mass, 125-150 people.
- Even when public Masses start, we will continue to live-stream the 10:30 am Sunday Mass as we have been doing.
- If you are 65 or over, and/or have any health condition that leaves your health in any way compromised, please stay home! As Cardinal Cupich reminds us, during this pandemic time, missing Mass is not a sin!

We very much look forward to welcoming everyone back to church! Please feel free to contact the office or any member of the parish staff with any questions. We remember each of you in prayer every day! Please pray for St. Gertrude parish and all those who are suffering in any way.

- The office is open by appointment only. Appointments may be made by email to stgertrude1420@stgertrudechicago.org or by phoning 773.764.3621.
- We will accept only one appointment at a time so we can observe social distancing requirements of being six feet apart. There will be social distancing markings in the front hallway. If more than one person needs to be present for the appointment, please inform the office of the number of people so that appropriate social distancing procedures may be observed. We suggest a limit of four people.
- Visitors must not exhibit any signs of COVID-19 related illness (fever of 100.4 degrees or above, cough, shortness of breath, sore throat, chest tightness, extreme fatigue, loss of sense of taste or smell, diarrhea, muscle aches, or headaches) or had exposure to anyone with these symptoms.
- Visitors must wear masks or face coverings.
- Visitors must use hand sanitizer upon entering and exiting the building. Hand sanitizer will be provided.
- Requests such as new parish registrations, changes in parishioner address or phone numbers, Mass or prayer intentions, scheduling, etc. should be made by phone or email.
- Please make an appointment only if a face-to-face meeting is absolutely necessary. If you are dropping off checks or documents, please put through the mail slot at the Rectory door on the west side of the building between Granville Avenue and the alley. If what you are dropping off is too large to fit through the mail slot, please notify the Rectory to make further arrangements.

St. Gertrude Parish Cloth Mask Project - Masks to be Available for Purchase at the Rectory Beginning July 6

Beginning July 6, we will have 20 masks available for purchase at the Rectory. Please keep in mind the new safety protocols in place for visiting the Rectory outlined in the above article. They have been sewn by Kadidja, the single mother of two who we've sponsored since she arrived from the Central African Republic, and a gifted seamstress. This is a win-win - she lost her job when we went on lockdown for the pandemic, and we all need masks.

At present, Kadidja has committed to creating 30 masks per week. The cloth masks cost $5 each. If you'd like to place an order, click here: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0845a5ab2cab9-cloth>.

Payment can be submitted by check (make payable to Catrine Guzik), Zelle (audraeisin2@hotmail.com), or Venmo TogetherWeAreStrong.

You will be called or texted (state in the comments how you want to be contacted when placing your order) when your masks are ready to be picked up.

If you would like some tech support, please contact Pam Horan-Bussey at 773.315.3290.

Lyrics for July 5, 2020

Gather Us In by Marty Haugen

Verse 1: Here in this place new light is streaming, now is the darkness vanished away, See in this space our fears and our dreamings, Brought here to you in the light of this day.

*Gather us in the lost and forsaken, Gather us in the blind and the lame;
Call to us now, and we shall awaken, we shall arise at the sound of our name.*

Verse 4: Not in the dark of buildings confining, not in some heaven, light years away, but here in this place the new light is shining, now is the Kingdom, now is the day.

Gather us in and hold us forever, Gather us in and make us your own;

Gather us in all peoples together, fire__ of love in our flesh and our bone.

Psalm 145: I will Praise Your Name by Marty Haugen

I will praise your name, my King and my God. I will praise your name, my King and my God.

The Prayer of St. Francis by Sebastian Temple

Make me a channel of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me bring your love. Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord, and where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace, where thee's despair in life, let me bring hope. Where there is darkness only light, and where there's sadness ever joy.

Oh Master, grant that I may never seek. So much to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace. It is in pardoning that we are pardoned, in giving of ourselves that we receive, and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Ubi Caritas by Laurence Rosania

Refrain: Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est. Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est.

Verse 1: We gather together in the love of Christ; let each one be glad in him and rejoice. Our God is alive, the God of love is near; so love one another with a heart sincere. (to refrain)

Verse 2: We, the many, become one body as the Spirit binds, And we seek to be one in Christ and one in heart and mind.

Let all quarrels, all division, all our conflict cease;

Then will Christ truly dwell among us as our Lord of Peace. (to refrain)

Verse 3: Then, joined with blessed, filled with hope and grace,

Dear Lord, in great glory may we see your face.

Our joy none can measure, joy that knows no end,

Resounding from endless age to age. Amen. (to refrain)

Sing of the Lord's Goodness by Ernest Sands

Verse 1: Sing of the Lord's goodness, Father of all wisdom, come to him and bless his name. Mercy he has shown us, his love is forever, faithful to end of days.

Refrain: Come, then, all you nations, sing of your Lord's goodness, melodies of praise and thanks to God. Ring out the Lord's glory, praise him with your music, worship him and bless his name.

Verse 2: Power he has wielded, honor is his garment, risen from the snares of death. His word he has spoken, one bread he has broken, new life he now gives to all. (to refrain)
