

DON'T YOU KNOW

RICH BARON © 2017

Don't you know leaving me won't be pretty Thinking you're much too witty for the boy you knew
Born down on the farm
Can't you see, you're moving way too fast
Thinking we're in the past, but how could you know You're heading for great harm.

Have you heard I am more than one, hotter than the sun,
deeper than the ocean.
You may not believe me, but I've seen everything you've done.
And after you leave me, you'll see there's nowhere else to run.
You will learn I remain the same, I design this game, it's you
I have chose... don't you know... don't you know... don't you know... don't you know.

Don't you know that which looks so inviting will leave you lost and fighting to get back to where, where you once belonged.
You will see nothing will satisfy you, everything that you try will leave you longing for the days of our first song.
