A Little Bit About Us

I'd like to take this opportunity to tell you a little bit about myself. Growing up in upstate New York, I used to spend many hours at my community deli around the corner from my house. Everyone would gather in the mornings for their coffee and breakfast and would chit chat about what was happening in the neighborhood. These fond memories are what I have based my dream on.

I wanted to own a café of my own in my new home of San Diego. While attending USD, I enjoyed living in Mission Beach, so it was here that I started looking. When I walked into the Olive Café, saw the fireplace and felt the cozy atmosphere, I knew I had found the right place. With a little help from friends and family, I was able to begin making my dream come true.

After 10 years running the café since 2005, I decided I was up for another challenge. I will never forget one of my first jobs out of college working at a family bakery in Little Italy. I loved talking with regulars when they picked up their fresh bread and watching faces light up when customers found their favorite pastries. Now I am proud to say that all of our bread is baked up the street at the Olive Baking Company.

I want the Olive Café to be a welcoming place where guests can sip coffee out of their very own mugs, munch on some of Dad's Favorite Pancakes, or play games while sharing a warm scone. My mission is to serve fresh, quality, home cooked food as quickly as possible. Please remember it is cooked to order. You'll be welcomed by a friendly face, even early in the morning. If you have any suggestions, please don't hesitate to tell me. I want you to know I truly believe that it is not just my café. It also belongs to those who come visit.
