

Extremism

By C.E. Warner 1-28-22

Required purity test is telltale sign movement has jumped the rails of common sense.

Be left or right, the fringe has loudest whine.

Calm and rational are fatal offense.

Right bemoans regulations and mandates, except when enforcing desired purity.

Compromise is a weakness. It dictates conformity is their security.

Left preaches acceptance all inclusive,
except division under woke name.

More regulations must be preclusive,
my responsibility not to blame.

Majority watches from the middle while the circus clowns around them diddle.
