

The General's Driver

By C.E.Warner 8-25-21

Kay Summersby was Eisenhower's driver during WWII. Worked closely for 2 years. Stories of an affair were never confirmed. She died of cancer in 1975. Possible thoughts at the end.

My duty to answer my country's need.

My position whatever assigned role.

To transportation services proceed.

Driving officers would become my goal.

Assigned to drive General to meeting.

Continued with General throughout stay.

World's worries General keeps repeating.

Civilization's hopes constantly weigh.

Invasion heavy as his mind churns.

So much cost, so many souls, no other way.

Much conversation to ease his concerns.

Success keeps depression's pain at bay.

War's destruction forges together soul's bond.

No greater friend had in life or beyond.
