

Planetary Tarot Correspondences: A Closer Look

THE SUN

The Sun
Full awareness

Your sun sign is determined by the zodiac sign that the sun was in at the moment of your birth. The sun represents life, vitality, ego, will, consciousness, identity, individuality, and what you are recognized for. Apart from these meanings, the sun also symbolizes achievement, acknowledgment, and joy.

THE MOON

The High Priestess
Inner Wisdom

As the controller of tides and emotions, the moon is also linked with qualities such as intuition, sensitivity, and the subconscious. It symbolizes our innermost sentiments and emotions, reflecting our emotional well-being and providing insights into our deeper levels of feeling.

MERCURY

The Magician
The Power of the Mind

Mercury is the planet of communication, expression and transportation. It's also linked with intellect, logic, reason, and memory. It governs short journeys, conveying messages, negotiations and contracts. However, it can also be associated with qualities such as deceitfulness and slyness.

VENUS

The Empress
Pleasure & Sensuality

Venus is the planet associated with love, fertility, harmony, beauty, and pleasure. It symbolizes our passions, desires, and affections. Venus also governs our sense of attraction to people and things and defines how we connect with others romantically and sexually.

MARS

The Tower
Abrupt Change & Upheaval

Known as the planet of war, Mars embodies action, rage, ambition, conflict, determination, assertiveness, and aggression, while also being a representation of courage and strength. Mars rules over our instincts for survival and initiates us to push forward in order to avoid stagnation.
