FUN FACTS TO KNOW & TELL

Established by President Warren G. Harden/Congress 1923/1928.
 About 56 square miles in Southern Utah on the Colorado Plateau.
 Stunning scenic views from the rim at 8-9,000 feet elevation.
 Spectacular remains of frost-wedged stone tell Utah's 500 m yr origin story.
 Not a canyon, rather a marvelous set of depressions in earth's surface.
 Giant amphitheatres filled with sun-glow red rock spires called hoodoos.
 Internationally renowned as one of the world's darkest sky parks.
 Powerful telescopes accessible here to view fabulous starry nights.

BEST PLACES TO VISIT

Rim Trail, Navajo Loop Trail, Queens Garden Trail, Queen Victoria Lookout,
 Thor's Hammer, Inspiration Point, Fairyland Loop,
 Bryce Amphitheatre, Bryce Point,
 Sunrise Point, Sunset Point, Peekaboo Loop Horse Trail.

NATIVE AMERICAN PEOPLES

Native peoples have inhabited and migrated from and to this land for the past 10,000 years. Basketmaker artifacts, several thousand years old were found here. The Paiute Indians moved here as other cultures left. They were hunter/gatherers and cultivated some crops. Their legends told that the Hoodoos were the Legend People who'd been turned to stone by the Trickster/Coyote.
