The Peter Josef Drathen winery was founded in 1860 with its home in St. Aldegund, Germany and was renamed in 1927 as the Josef Drathen winery through settlement of the estate. On the death of the founder Josef Drathen in 1939, the winery was run by his widow Else, and her niece Grete Gesthüsen with her husband Hugo for the next 30 years. On July 1st, 1969, the next generation represented by Arthur Gesthüsen, Dieter Gesthüsen and Josef Zirwes took over and successfully ran the business. In 1993, a completely new and modern winemaking facility opened in the business park on Zell-Barl. Since 1996, the management of the business has been in the hands of the younger generation of the family represented by Tim Gesthüsen and Jürgen Zirwes. The Wein & Sektkellerei Josef Drathen GmbH & Co. KG can look back over 100 years of tradition in the winemaking and sparkling wine production business handed down from generation to generation. Today, the company is one of the leading winemakers and sparkling wine producers of the Mosel region.
