

Help Save The Animals

IBERIAN LYNX

Q.S.S. Rare

The perfect union between the wines of Quinta de S. Sebastião, with more than 300 years of tradition in wine production in Arruda dos Vinhos, and a cause, the endangered animals! The most recent wines from Quinta de S. Sebastião, QSS Rare range, were born combining two purposes: to offer vibrant and modern wines produced in a millenary terroir and to support organizations that are in the front line in the important fight against the extinction of species that are currently endangered, drawing the consumer's attention to this very worrying issue. Embark with us on this trip that will introduce you to some of the most interesting species of our ecosystem while tasting wines from the unique terroir of Arruda dos Vinhos, which have already been internationally awarded by the most prestigious critics. (e.g. Wine Enthusiast, Berliner Wine Trophy).

LPN

The League for the Protection of Nature (LPN) is an Environmental Non-Governmental Organization (ENGO) of national scope and public utility. With over 70 years of existence, the LPN is the oldest environmental protection association in the Iberian Peninsula. Its mission is to contribute to the Preservation of Nature and to Environmental Protection, with a view to sustainable development, ensuring a quality of life for current and future generations. The LPN develops various types of activities at national, regional, and local level, including the monitoring of public environmental policy, civic intervention through projects of Nature and Environmental Conservation, Research, Training, Education and Environmental Awareness. Many awards and distinctions have already been awarded to the LPN, such as the Order of Infante Dom Henrique (1994), the Order of Merit (1998) and the title of Honorary Member of the Order of Public Instruction (2018).
