a new Canadian Immigrant

Have you ever experienced

Frustrations as a New Canadian

Immigrants come to Canada for better lives

THE JOURNEY IS NOT EASY...

... as you thought to learn to live a better life in Canada. You feel frustration, stress, loneliness and isolation. You don't know who to ask for help for your custom needs. You regret coming here. It is too cold!

We can help you

Work on Learning

What you need to build your better life in Canada

TIP 1

Help you Understanding what you need

If you qualify, you will be able to access custom modules that will help you understand your needs and learn how to build the skills and use the resources to support

TIP 2

Choosing your Learning

You will be offered access to online interactive courses that will allow you to create a transition action plan towards a better life in Canada

TIP 3

Focus on BEing Well

Our learning modules help you learn about the importance of self care. If you feel well you will be able to think clearly about what you need to action on in your transition plan.

TIP 4

It is YOUR Transition Plan

Your transition plan will be built by you. You know your needs better than anyone. We will guide and support you every step of the way. You will be able to self-monitor your progress. Your results will be dependent on your efforts.

TIP 5

We will not forget you

After you complete the modules, we will follow up with you to check in on your progress to your transition plan towards a better life. You will have access to other immigrants to create your support network and keep you working on your plan.
