Public Safety & Event Agreement:

Each Vendor must consent to a safety inspection by the Upper Sandusky Fire Department and the rules below as they are a requirement of the Wyanstock Music Festival and its agreement with the Wyandot County Fairgrounds.

1. Vendors using electric will be charged a fee of $25 per day.
2. Vendors must be inside of the established fence area. Vehicle access during the event is prohibited.
3. Exhibitors are responsible for collecting sales tax per the State of Ohio.
4. Food Vendors utilizing deep fryers must have valid Class K fire extinguisher.
5. A working Carbon Monoxide (CO) detector must be inside each food trailer.
6. Each vendor must have at least 12' spacing between them and the nearest trailer.
7. Vendors should arrive between 9:00am and 12:00pm (noon) the Friday of the event and await instruction for where to set up. If unable to arrive at that time, please make prior arrangements with the Wyanstock committee to avoid issues with stage and sound install.
8. Campers arriving early must notify both the Fairground and a member of the Wyanstock committee to ensure camping sites are reserved before arrival. Early arrival is not a guarantee.
